Trustees Approve Revised Plans

Many School Bus Stops May Go

Enforcement Requires Visibility Requirements

Central County school districts are beginning surveys to determine how many of their bus stops must be eliminated or moved to satisfy a more rigorous enforcement of state law.

It appears that possibly 20 per cent of the bus stops in Orinda, and a high percentage in Lafayette and Walnut Creek do not meet the requirements which will be more strictly enforced by the California Highway Patrol next fall.

SEE EDITORIAL, EDITORIAL PAGE, SECOND SECTION

The problem is not so great in the Mt. Diablo Unified School District, where there are fewer hills and curved roads.

CHP PATROLMAN Herbert Lessley, the CHP school bus officer for this area, said the State Board of Education's requirement is that busses stopping on the "main traveled portion" of a road or highway must have a full 400-foot visibility front and back.

And busses which are able to pull off the main traveled portion of the road must have 250 feet of visibility, front and back.

Officer Lessley said the intent of the more rigid enforcement of the law is to encourage districts to find more places where their busses can pull entirely off the main traveled portion of the road, thus eliminating hazards of blocking or partially blocking the roads.

He noted that the state law actually prescribes 200 feet visibility for any motor vehicle which parks or stops on the traveled portion of the road.

BUT THE State Board of Education applied to busses a 400-foot requirement, and added the 250-foot requirement for busses off the road.

There is no state law for visibility for an ordinary motor vehicle which is off the road.

Lessley said, "In the past, these requirements were often overlooked due to necessity and the problems which school districts would have in meeting them."

However, since the new enforcement decision, several of the worst stops in Orinda and Lafayette have already been eliminated, he said.

He said the CHP would prefer not to discuss the events which have led up to new enforcement policy.

BUT THE SUN learned that a fatal injury accident involving a school bus parked on the traveled portion of the road occurred in California. And it has put school districts on their guard.

The liability of any school district involved in such circumstances may be questioned, and it has been, The Sun learned.

Lessley said, "The rules and regulations are there, and have not been changed. We must go by the requirements."

He said that CHP Captain Jelich called a meeting two months ago of representatives of school districts in this area and informed them of the change in policy.

The district administrators are surveying with measuring tape all bus stops in doubt, and they will later on confer with Lessley on the results.

Surveys Begin; School Men Are Waiting Tensely

It would be "wishful thinking of the first order" to hope that many Orinda area bus stops using the "major traveled portion" of the road can be moved off the road, Acalanes School District Business Manager Ross Reagan said this week.

He referred to the future enforcement of visibility requirements for bus stopping and parking spots, on and off the highway, and the fact that such requirements have not been enforced in the past.

Reagan said, "Have you seen El Toyonal?"

AND HE mentioned other areas of Orinda and Lafayette where conditions are hilly and roads are sharply curving.

However, the district, which provides bus transportation for high school students, also the Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga elementary districts, has begun surveys.

Reagan said, "We are aware of the problem, will do something about it.

But it is quite possible that we will be forced to discontinue service in certain areas where it is literally impossible to find a spot where a bus can pull off and meet the requirements."

RICHARD Fickel, Walnut Creek School District superintendent, said Marion Hopkins, district transportation supervisor, is measuring all stops, and will make his report.

The administrators will then meet with the district transportation committee (trustees) and the CHP to work out a plan, he said.

Sheriff's Office Reports Many Burglaries, Thefts

Three burglaries and several thefts were reported to the Lafayette Office of the County Sheriff's Department in the last week.

Two youths were apprehended by deputies as they emerged from the Speedee Mart in Walnut Creek last Saturday morning. The store is under construction at the present.

The youths were in the process of taking beer from the building, deputies said. Two other youths were implicated by the suspects, the office reported.

A HOME at 923 Mt. View in Lafayette was broken into last weekend but nothing was taken, the owner reported.

Magdeline Venable of Berkeley said she had had trouble with juveniles breaking in her unused home before.

The persons apparently stayed in the house all night and took some liquor, deputies said.

W. N. Rudolph, 3973 Rancho Road, Lafayette, reported to the Sheriff's Office that someone had walked into his garage refrigerator and taken a quantity of beer and wine last week. He said the garage was unlocked when he and his wife left for work.

Kenneth Faulker, 3209 McNutt, Walnut Creek, reported that an acetylene torch head, burning tip and two gauges were taken from his truck last Saturday morning.

TWO REAR wheels and tires and wheels were taken from the car of A. Barboza, 48 Roberts Road, Orinda, deputies reported last Saturday.

A Pleasant Hill drive-in operator reported to deputies that a large sign was taken from the property and a large window damaged.

Ted Little told deputies the damage amounted to $240.

The father of Cheryl Cooper, 168 Oak Vale Road, Walnut Creek reported to deputies that $15 was taken from his daughter's purse while she was in a class at Del Valle School.

Otis H. Winfield of Berkeley called in Sheriff's Deputies when he discovered his wallet was missing from his locker at Orinda Country Club last Saturday.

ALMOST $400 in cash and numerous credit cards were in the wallet Winfield told deputies.

A mailbox at the home of Robert Underwood, 3305 Ameno Drive, Lafayette was reported stolen by its owners.

TEMPTING food is planned for the Glorietta School Parents Club pot luck supper set for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the school's multi-use room. Planning for the annual event are Mrs. Marie Bacon, left, and Mrs. E. S. Heckathorn, chairman. —Sun photo by Erwin Mattson

Music or Math... Or Maybe Both?

An Editorial

Both the National Council for Basic Education and the California Citizens Advisory Commission consider music to be a part of basic education.

This premise may be found in the November 1960 Final Report of the citizen advisory commission and in the January 1961 Bulletin put out by the Council for Basic Education.

MOST PEOPLE are agreed that music and art are essential to well rounded growth, but somewhere along the line, our youngsters have become so burdened academically, that few feel they can afford the luxury of music.

Caught between parents who are concerned that the student be eligible for the college of his choice and educators who must see that their students meet the increasingly high standards of college entrance, the youngster in high school often takes five or more "solids".

Adding the seventh period to high school classroom days has not permitted the student to enrich his education with music or art, for he needs that extra period for valuable study time.

COMPETITION for college entrance, competition in life has become so acute, our high school youngsters are, perhaps, losing a part of their education as essential as the math, science and languages.

A group of Orinda parents interested in seeing the fine music program of the grade schools at least made available to students in high school are concerned that many students who desire to continue in music cannot because of academic pressure.

WE DO NOT know the answer. We do feel it is a subject that should be reviewed by parents and educators. Somewhere there must be a happy medium that will permit the development of the whole child, rather than a student whose education is based strictly on "getting in" at the college of his choice, or as is frequently the case, the college of his parents choice. Yes!

Administration Building To Have 4824 Square Ft.

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Approval of the revised plans for the Orinda Union School District's proposed administration building was given by the board of trustees at a special meeting held at the Pine Grove School Tuesday night.

Two hours of heated deliberation and certain changes in the preliminary plans were made, before a vote was taken on two motions which finally resulted in the approval.

MRS. RUTH GILWEE, board member, was strongly in favor of including a meeting room (area A) in the preliminary plans. At the previous board meeting when trustees authorized the sale of bonds to finance the building, allowance was made in the amount of bonds to include this room.

At the present time staff meetings are held in the library of the Pine Grove School, which precludes the use of the library by the children at such times. Meetings are also held in Superintendent Joe Sheaff's office.

Mrs. Gilwee pointed out that in the plans for the new building, there was not adequate space in the superintendent's office for staff meetings. If the meeting room were to be eliminated from the administration building plans, the staff would probably continue to interrupt student use of the library by necessity of a place to conduct staff business.

HOWEVER, when the issue was brought to a vote by Mrs. Gilwee's motion that the revised plans be approved, including the meeting room, the trustees with the exception of Mrs. Gilwee voted no.

A second motion, by Philip Bush, to approve the revised plans eliminating the meeting room (area A) but including the two additional feet added to the width of the building along its entire length (area B) and including a six foot addition to the length at the south end (area C) was unanimously approved.

AS THE PLANS now stand, the administration building will encompass 4824 square feet, considerably more than the original 4100 square feet that grew to 4400 square feet, but less than the 5700 square feet to which the plans ultimately jumped.

At a construction cost of $15.99 per square foot, the building as it is now planned will stay within the amount allocated by the sale of bonds.

Approval of the revised plans was nearly swallowed forever when the trustees deliberated on the advisability of constructing an administration building in the face of possible unification.

ALL WERE agreed the need for such a building is pressing, but some felt action should be delayed until the Odell Associates report is submitted pertaining to unification.

It was pointed out, that the building would probably be needed for administrative purposes under any circumstances, but should this prove untrue, without too much difficulty the building could logically be converted to classroom use with minimum expense.

Final plans for the administration building will be presented to the trustees at the next board meeting March 6. What action will be taken at that time remains undecided.

SHEAFF explained that money from the sale of bonds will not be available until April, therefore bids for construction cannot be let until that time.

Meanwhile it is conceivable between now and April, further information and action on unification may change the board's collective mind in regard to immediate construction.

Prior to approving the revised plans, the possibility of adding six classrooms to Inland Valley School, instead of the four already scheduled was considered.

Two of the added classrooms could be used for administrative purposes with installation of inexpensive plywood dividers.

The general feeling of the board in this matter was that it was only delaying action for an administration building that had already been delayed too long. Eventually the classrooms would be needed for students and the board would again be faced with the problem they are facing now.

IN OTHER business, a two-hour discussion was held on the recommendations of an eight man committee regarding the insurance coverages of the district. The report was submitted by Dave Warren. All committee members are local residents and professional insurance men.

It was agreed by the board that the proposed method of selecting insurance agents be used, rather than calling for bids. The board called for a 90 day extension on existing policies to June 30 rather than the existing expiration date of April 1. Meanwhile the committee will meet with Jim Jentges, district business administrator to work out proposals.

Committee Set Up By Civic Group

The Civic Affairs committee of the Orinda Association met Monday at the Orinda School under the leadership of Harry Fledderman, chairman.

Dave Young was elected vice chairman of the group and Mrs. Dorothy Bannister was appointed secretary.

Five committees were named to perform the duties of the civic affairs group. They are subcommittees for the utilization of Orinda Association property; program; membership liaison; "watchdogs" for recreational use of EBMUD property and an integration committee.

Fledderman, who will serve as membership liaison group to seek those groups who are members of the association, but who are not actively participating in association affairs.

He asked the committee to determine if there are any areas not now represented at the association meetings and to plot territorial limitations to avoid conflicts and assure complete representation of all areas in Orinda.

Fledderman, who will serve as chairman of the subcommittee on integration, explained this committee was formed to study the possibility of conforming improvement associations to the same fiscal year as that of the Orinda Association.

CLOSER coordination and efficiency could be obtained, he believes, if all officers were elected at the same time, permitting the same group of people to work together for a year. The feasibility of dues applying to both the local group and the association will also be studied.

Have A Heart on Heart Sunday Say Campaigners

Heart Fund volunteers will be seen on every street in the county Sunday, on their way to distribute health-saving information about the heart diseases.

"They will collect Heart Sunday contributions with which the Contra Costa County Heart Association can help fight the nation's Number 1 health enemy," said Dr. Floyd Marchus, chairman.

Funds collected will be used for research, professional and public education and community services.

A LARGE percentage of the volunteers who devote their time to this campaign are motivated by personal reasons.

In many cases they have experienced losses in their families from some form of heart disease. Others, again, are giving time to this case because they are grateful for benefits received, Marchus said.

Mrs. John Salathe, 72 Terra Bella, Walnut Creek, volunteered her help in grateful acknowledgement of the part heart research played in restoring eight-year-old Linda to health after diagnosis showed the child had an inborn heart defect.

Not very many years ago, such children were doomed. Today, Linda Salathe can look forward to a normal, productive life as a result of open heart surgery performed last summer, Marchus continued.

MRS. ANDEN MEEKS, 5289 Pine Hollow Road, Concord, is the first volunteer for the 1962 Heart Sunday drive. "I want to help next year, because I can't go out this year," she said. This young matron, mother of four, is still recuperating from major surgery involving the complete replacement of her incompetent aortic valve with one of plastic. According to her physician, Mrs. Meeks was literally snatched from death by an operation which has become possible only in the last few years.

Another dramatic example of the accomplishments of recent heart research is the case of Kenneth Chandler, 918 Hawthorne Drive, Walnut Creek.

He was near death last year and had a heart which beat very slowly and sometimes stopped completely. He was given a new lease on life by a new electronic machine, the pacemaker, which works like an electric pulse to stimulate the heart muscle into a firm beat.

The pacemaker is worn on a belt around Chandler's wrist. It has wires which lead into his heart to provide current to a faltering heart.

DR. MARCHUS said nearly 60 million Heart Fund dollars have been invested in research since the Heart Association became a national voluntary health agency in 1948. Results have been gratifying in saving lives, he said, but much remains to be done.

"As long as heart disease still takes more than half the lives in our nation, as well as our community, we must keep pouring money into this phase of the Heart Association program," he said.

Dr. Marchus urged residents to contribute generously to the Heart Fund in an effort to make further progress against the heart diseases on all fronts.

Heart Sunday volunteers will call on residents Sunday afternoon in a two-hour drive. They will present an official Heart Fund contribution envelope for the donor's convenience.

AFTER THE contribution has been inserted, the envelope may be sealed before being returned to the volunteer.

Heart Sunday area chairmen include Mesdames Gunnar Scholer, Alamo; Joseph Levanda, Concord; W. P. Deanton, Danville; Arthur C. Scheu, Marcel Lescure and C. R. Smith, Lafayette.

Mesdames W. L. Arnold, Moraga; J. H. Schwarck and William Van Voorhis, Orinda; Kenneth Clark and Chester Tigard, Pleasant Hill; Floyd Marchus, Walnut Creek.

Candidate Filing Date Advanced

An emergency bill passed this week in the State Legislature advances the deadline for filing of candidacy for school board member to March 3 from March 17.

The purpose is to allow more time for printing and distributing of ballots which are made more complex than usual by the large number of positions to be filled. This is the first biennial rather than annual election to be held.

In Contra Costa County 105 positions are to be filled on the 32 district boards and Contra Costa County Board of Education, according to Floyd Marchus, county school superintendent.

In Lafayette five candidates are seeking a post on the board where there will be three vacancies. They are Ron Pedder, incumbent; Helen Brattain, incumbent; Philip Diamond, J. Richard Johnson and Frank K. Bosworth.

In Orinda seven candidates seek to serve the school board where two vacancies will occur. They are incumbents J. Gordon Ainsworth and Mrs. Ruth Gilwee and candidates Mrs. Gretchen Howe, Mrs. Heber Smith, Mrs. Thomas Deahl, Harry R. Clemons and Dr. Lloyd Bernard.

Coll Calls Fire Merger Plan Illegal

An informal hearing to get the opinion of area residents on consolidation of the fire districts has been called for Tuesday by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors. A formal hearing will be held later.

Supervisor Thomas Coll of Concord has said the proposed consolidation of four central Contra Costa fire districts with parts of three others would be illegal.

County Administrator J. P. McBrien and Coll explained the board would have to get special legislation to be able to break up existing districts.

"We can combine the Orinda, Mt. Diablo, Central and Mt. View Districts, Coll said, "but we can't all by ourselves include just parts of the Eastern, Briones and Island districts."

Greyhound Lines Eliminates 2nd And Folsom Stop

Contra Costa commute buses going to the Seventh Street terminal in San Francisco will not stop at Second and Folsom, Greyhound Bus Lines announced. This change is on a trial basis.

The stop has also been eliminated for buses coming from the Seventh Street Terminal back to Contra Costa.

And the schedule for these buses has been changed. Residents should call the stations nearest them for the new schedules.

Persons who formerly got off at Second and Folsom can take the Greyhound "trans-bay" service, which will drop them at the Trans-bay terminal on First Street, less than two blocks from Second and Folsom.

Traffic Tie-up Jams Freeway

Thursday morning commuter traffic was bumper to bumper for approximately a mile on the Highway 24 freeway after three westbound autos collided.

The accident occurred about three-quarters of a mile west of Walnut Creek between the El Curtola overpass and the Pleasant Hill interchange.

According to the California Highway Patrol, there were only minor injuries. As one car stopped, it was hit from the rear by another and a third rammed into the other two.

Traffic on the three westbound lanes was slowed and backed up before wrecking crews could clear the roadway.

Rotary Slates Miramonte Career Night

The Orinda Rotary Club met Wednesday at Miramonte High School with members of the Miramonte Wheel Club. The meeting was conducted by officers of the Wheel Club.

The Rotary Club will sponsor the annual Miramonte Career Night on March 6 at the high school.

At a recent February meeting of the Hilltop Garden Club, Mrs. Paul Pallaczek gave a talk, illustrated with colored slides, on "How we can make and keep Orinda beautiful."

Father of Seven Killed In Wrong-Way Auto Crash

A father of seven, William W. Strelo, 47, insurance salesman, of 1250 Chatton Court in Lafayette, was killed instantly in a headon crash with another vehicle on a one-way stretch of the Mt. Diablo Blvd. Freeway early Wednesday morning.

In less than a week two accidents involving autos going the wrong way on a one-way road occurred. The scenes of the crashes were only a quarter of a mile apart.

Strelo was driving eastbound on a westbound stretch of the freeway near Pleasant Hill Road when the crash occurred.

He slammed his car headon into an auto driven by Miss Barbara Arnold, 18, of 5360 Broadway, Oakland, an employee of the telephone company.

A passenger in Miss Arnold's car was Mrs. Gerry Jacobs, 18, of 4512 Lawton Avenue, Oakland, a bride of two weeks whose husband is a sailor at sea.

Both Miss Arnold and Mrs. Jacobs were seriously injured with head injuries and are in Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek.

Strelo had been driving the wrong way for nearly two miles, according to the Highway Patrol.

He apparently got on the wrong side of the freeway by driving up a ramp, as shrubbery in the center driving strip would have stopped his small foreign car, said Sgt. Alex Koven of the Highway Patrol.

Assistant State Highway Engineer Joseph P. Sinclair said that an immediate investigation of order to determine if signs and lights on the freeway were sufficient and design of the freeway was proper.

This investigation will be the second, as a similar investigation after the fatal accident of John E. Corcorran, 35, of 15 Parkland Drive, has been made already. The investigation disclosed that nothing in the freeway design or markings of ramps would cause the accident.

Memorial Fund Is Established

A memorial fund to aid the seven children of William Strelo who was killed early Wednesday in a wrong way crash on the Lafayette freeway has been established at the Walnut Creek branch of the Crocker Anglo National Bank.

Co-chairman for the memorial fund are Strelo's neighbors, Mrs. Thelma L. Goble and Mrs. Bernie Smith, both of Chattan Court, Lafayette.

They ask that anyone interested in contributing to the fund mail or take their contribution to the Crocker Anglo National Bank, Walnut Creek, for deposit.

I Concentrate On You

NO COMMENTS off stage, please . . . When we pull into our suburban paradise, we can't help feeling that we're coming in through the "Employee's Entrance." WHY such a flotsam-jetsam assortment (& ill-assortment) of signs! Especially guilty are the realtors, some w/3 & 4 markers.

LITTLE DAVID . . . rather Neil Porter, 11 yr. old son of the senior Neil Porters who, in his Judo classes at Law's in Oakland, took on 14 bigger fellows before he was floored to the mat.

Others learning good sportsmanship, wrestling (& how to overthrow mother?) are Bruce & Keith McKnight, the Renwick & Poupeney children.

I'm glad the YO-YO season is almost over! Nerve-wracking noise, isn't it, that "walking the doggy" all over the wooden floor, morning, noon & night, not to mention the nearly broken windows & black eyes by a flying piece of wood at the end of a string.

WHO WILL be the Big Champ?

The new pink ribbon champ at the Has Schnittlers is a little girl, their third child, but FIRST daughter!

Family Of The Week . . . The Ed Bisiars leaving church Sunday w/their Seven from Heaven in tow, the latest bundle being a beautiful armful of boy named Gregory. Born just five weeks ago, Florence tells us he was a husky ten-pounder!

COUNTRY CLOTHESLINE . . . Bettina Anderson shopping in Lucky's, looking very casual & countryfied, trimly neat replete w/warm wooly slacks of gold & green houndstooth check, topped by a turtle-neck sweater of khaki green, its knitted yoke collar trimmed in gold & white.

Here's a new tongue twister submitted by one of our deep thinkers: "How much ground round would a ground hog ground if a ground hog would ground ground round?"

OFF TO A SUCCESSFUL START is the new Humantities Seminar for all Miramonte students & behind the scenes as well as out front are many people responsible for its getting off to such a good start.

CREDIT to some of those on committee working on this for over a year . . . Virginia Stafford for doing secretarial duties, Betty Chilton & Alice Thompson for giving lots of advice & support when things looked unpromising . . . Names (thanks to Carol Leland) which you can always find working for things worthwhile in the community, such as Fran & Avram Yedidia.

Ann & Paul Pollaczek, Lid Miles, Genevieve Syverud, Bertie Eberhart, Betty & David Coleman, Molly Nelson, Gretchen Howe, Dr. Lew McKeever, Mops Roegiers, Marina Jones w/her extensive knowledge of people in music & Gloria Brown, talented artist (whose own children are so gifted in the arts) & who is the Seminar's mainstay in that field.

THE HUMANITES Seminar has been organized to stimulate the young people in the many facets of the Humanities . . . Dr. Donald Fleming, a newcomer to Orinda w/his charming wife Kathy (& fortunately for the program, soph. dghtr. Katy) is a man who has great interest in providing opportunities for the students to learn more about the humanities & experience the thrill he feels for them. His is a wide acquaintance in academic circles & he has accepted the chairmanship of the program committee to secure lecturers each week.

All Miramonte students are invited to join the weekly two-hour evening meets held on Wednesdays. There was SRO when Dr. Elias of SF State spoke at the first meeting . . . He traced the beginning of the humanities in ancient times down to modern day, made the Greek era come alive w/his vivid description of the great philosophers & their times.

His enthusiasm for the wonderful contributions of great people in other civilizations was contagious & the students & parents left w/a desire to learn more about the many exciting avenues into which he gave them a glimpse.

Dr. William Hilger is coordinator in charge of discussion leaders. Phyllis Hartanov is planning three field trips for the group. Recent discussion leaders were Gloria Brown, Mildred Simon, Paul Barrett, David Coleman, Robert Desmond & Lid Miles. Nice work & you are doing it!

I Get A Kick Out of You

AROUND TOWN . . . That lady Lid Miles carrying an armful of Tangeloes to her cart at Orinda Store, the bright red-orange fruit the better to feed her weekend houseguest, an AFS student from Turkey.

If Jan Soubielle had to go & faint, she certainly picked the right time & place to do it! As Pres. of the Orinda Woman's Club, Jan had organized a First Aid Course to be conducted for the group & while attdg. the first session last Mon. night, the ladies (who had all brought blankets to practice first aid) were to place their fingers on the pressure points of their bodies . . . (How can I say that real lady-like?) Anyhow, placing her fingers at the veins on her throat, Jan all of a sudden was a limp & blacked-out bundle in the lap of the girl next to her.

ALL THE LADIES panicked & Jan awoke smothering under cover of some eight blankets all lovingly applied & wrapped about her! Husband Hank was paged at a St. Mary's game & Jan safely carted home to recoop being the first victim of her own doing!

But that's what happens when you're as thorough & efficient as Jan. She got her little patties on JUST exactly the right places which made for the fast faint!

MARY GRAH is bursting her buttons. Sisterly pride for her brother Dr. Oliver Beahrs, Mayo clinic, just re-elected one of the governors of Mayo Clinic. It was there, by the way, that Johnny Grah was born when father Rudy Grah (Forestry prof.) was getting his Ph. D. at Michigan.

Incidentally, when Mills gal Lid Miles & her husband Kirk were Westchesterites during a Shell assignment in the East, it was in the home belonging to cabinet member Dean Rusk & his wife that they lived.

MUSICAL NOTES: A musical cantata "Seven Last Words" by Theodore DuBois is the Palm Sunday offering of the 40-voice Community Church Choir who will present the timely program in the church sanctuary at 4 p.m. Palm Sunday afternoon. There will be four guest soloists, one of them being baritone Don Hatch, a recent winner of the SF Opera tryouts, the same of which our Frances Graoves was winner a few yrs. ago.

R. C. Spott Divorce Goes Before Court

The family home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Spott at 20 Brookbank Road; several nursing homes; subdivisions; land at Orinda, Sleepy Hollow, Squaw Valley and interests in several land development corporations, all totaling a worth of $400,000, were asked to be divided equitably in a recent petition of divorce made by Mrs. Spott before Superior Judge Hugh H. Donovan in Martinez.

Spott was ordered to pay $1,000 a month, reduced from $1,600, temporary alimony and child support pending trial of his wife's divorce suit which charges him with extreme cruelty.

Superior Judge Donovan awarded Mrs. Spott temporary custody of the couple's four children and ordered Spott to pay $2,500 toward attorney's fees and court costs.

The Spotts are both University of California graduates. They married in 1940.

DVC Science Center Opens to the Public Tomorrow

BY EDITH BRADY

"The wise man looks into space and does not regard the small as too little, nor the great as too big, for he knows there is no limit to dimension." This thought by Lao Tse sets the theme for the new Diablo Valley College Science Center, which opens officially tomorrow.

After that date tours of the center will be conducted daily for the general public.

THESE TOURS will reveal to Contra Costans a $529,097 Life Science building, housing a planetarium and museum, and biological science wing. The entire building, which sets atop a hill overlooking the campus, is more than a city block long.

A new Physical Science wing will be ready for use next fall. An observatory, which will contain the largest telescope in the county, is also in the plans.

ACCORDING to John Kelly, Science Center administrator, the new center is "one attempt to increase understanding.

"Above all else," he said, "its purpose is to assist in teaching." It is hoped, too, that it will lead students and the community at large to seek the abstractions and penetrate the mysteries of the universe.

Members of the faculty have acted as consultants and as participants in the development of the center, under the direction of Drummond J. McCunn, district superintendent.

CURATOR OF the center is Stanley Byrne. Coordinator of physical sciences is Robert Duke, the coordinator of biological sciences, Ferdinand Ruth.

The science deck and planetarium constitute a large portion of the Science Center. On the deck is a weather station comprised of a sundial, a rain gauge, a wind direction and velocity indicator, a temperature and humidity gauge and a barometer.

A SIX-INCH reflector telescope and a coelostat, an instrument for observing the sun, are also located on the science deck.

The planetarium which grows out of the science deck like an oversized mushroom houses a "star projector" which is a smaller version of the one used at the Morrison Planetarium in San Francisco.

This instrument projects pinpoints of light on the planetarium dome, each representing a star or planet. It can show the sky as it was back at the time of Christ's birth or the sky of the future when man has finally reached the stars, as well as the sky of today.

Also in the planetarium is a Foucault Pendulum, a replica of the one set up by Leon Foucault in 1851, in the Pantheon in Paris, to demonstrate the rotation of the earth.

A LECTURE SERIES, using the facilities of the planetarium, has been set up under the program for part-time students at the college. On Saturdays at 1 and 3:30 p.m. showings will be presented to the general public alternating with those planned for youth groups.

Astronomy, natural science, aviation and other classes will schedule the planetarium hours during the week.

The museum located under the planetarium and science desk has scheduled tours for the public from 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

VARIOUS EXHIBITS donated or loaned by local industrial firms and the University of California are located in the museum.

Some of these exhibits include exotic insects, fish and amphibians, woods for musical instruments, extinct fossils from the Rancho La Brea tar pits, and a collection of cephalopods.

A display of ethnographic material from the tropical highlands of eastern Peru, donated to the college in 1954 by Mrs. Alice K. Montin of Walnut Creek, is also in the museum.

ANOTHER EXHIBIT displays some artifacts found in Concord by Diablo Valley anthropology students and amplified by other specimens from the county.

Contra Costa is one of the richest areas for the discovery of prehistoric fossils in northern California. The palentology exhibit in the museum displays some bones of extinct Proboscidian (elephant) and bison which were excavated at a gravel pit near Arnold Industrial Highway.

A collection of silicates, an exhibit of crystal forms and a display of ceramic engineering materials which have allowed great advances in aeronautics and space exploration are also shown there.

IN A VAULT under the museum is a seismograph. This instrument, which is sensitive enough to pick up automobile traffic, is tied to the University of California Seismograph Station by telephone line.

It forms one point with Berkeley and Mt. Hamilton of a triangulation which allows for identification of epicenters for local earthquakes.

SOME INDUSTRIAL exhibits include a model of the Mercury capsule, which will carry the first American into space, donated by the Bell Telephone Company.

An exhibit from Monsanto Corporation demonstrates the production of commercial sulfuric acid with a model of the plant.

A display of large, colored molecule models of the basic component used in the chemical industry are on exhibit in the museum.

The Dow Chemical Corporation exhibit provides a four-minute sound movie on what causes hard water and how it can most effectively be softened by a process of ion exchange.

A MODEL DEPICTING a modern vacuum stripping unit showing the petroleum distillation process has been donated by the California Research Corporation. C&H Sugar Corporation has provided a model sugar refining unit.

The Vallecitos atomic power electrical plant exhibit donated by PG&E Company is a model depicting America's first privately financed atomic electricity plant, which is located in Pleasanton.

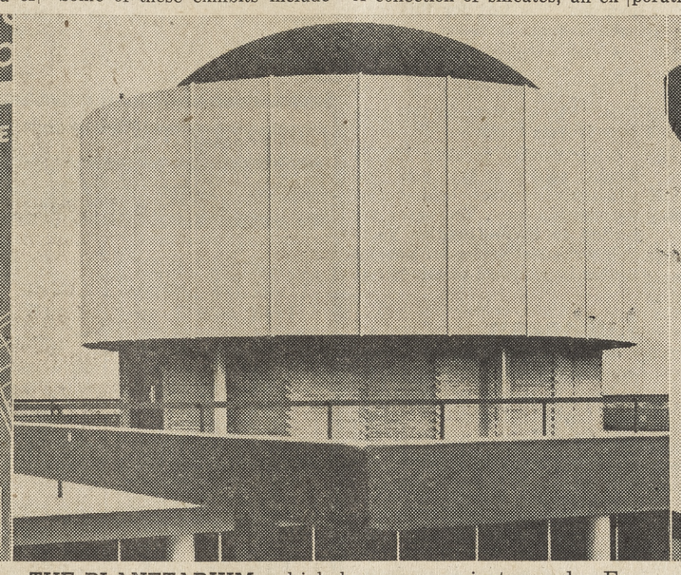
The Biological Science wing contains three biology laboratories and lecture rooms, and three chemistry laboratories with seating capacity for 55.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE, zoology, botany, physiology and chemistry are some of the classes held in the building.

Separating two preparation rooms is a wall of aquariums filled with marine life which contain student projects. A part of the marine life exhibit is a 23-inch long baby alligator which was donated by the Quivera Specialty Company of Kansas.

The $165,000 equipment in the center was paid for with matching funds from the college and the federal government through the National Defense Education Act.

EARTH'S LOCATION in the Universe is being pointed out by Stanley Byrne, curator of the new Diablo Valley College Science Center, to John Kelly, the center's administrator. This screen, on display in the museum lobby, sets the theme for the entire center.



THE PLANETARIUM, which houses a projector and a Foucault Pendulum, sits on top of the museum and grows out of the science deck. —Sun photos by Bob Rush.

THIS WEIRD-LOOKING instrument being demonstrated by Robert Duke, coordinator of Physical Sciences at the new Science Center, is a planetarium projector. It projects an illusion of the night time sky on the dome of the planetarium and can project backward and forward in time.

DV College Growing; Antioch Campus Planned

Expansion of Diablo Valley College facilities, a new campus in the Antioch area and "maybe another campus in Moraga" are future progress plans for the Contra Costa Junior College District in the east county, according to Verle Hendstrand, DVC dean of student personnel.

BESIDES THE construction of a physical science wing and an observatory, as a part of the Science Center to the west of the campus, a grading and draining project at a cost of $200,000 is now going on.

A $169,000 men's shower and locker room north of the gym is also under construction by the Western Empire Construction Company of Walnut Creek.

Construction on this structure began in November last year. It will be completed next fall.

According to John Kelly, DVC assistant dean of instruction, future construction plans include the construction of a women's locker room.

He added that plans are now for a large general classroom building to be built on land west of the existing library building.

RESHAPING and beautifying of the small lake located on the west side of the campus and the construction of an ampitheatre are in the master plan.

Eventually another technical education building will be built east of the Science Center and existing parking lots will be enlarged and new lots will be built.

The district is now negotiating with the federal government for Camp Stoneman land. Plans for an Antioch area campus to be built on this land are in the first stages, according to Hendstrand.

HENDSTRAND also indicated that later another campus may be constructed in the Moraga area, if county population increase calls for it.

There may be need for the new campuses as the junior college district enrollment continues to grow by leaps and bounds.

Early enrollment at the DVC campus during the fall of '54 was 901 for day classes. That figure leaped to 1928 in the fall of '59 and last year's fall enrollment records show an increase over that figure of 21.1 per cent, or 2335 students.

THESE FIGURES do not include the evening students at the campus. In the spring of last year evening student enrollment was 2867.

When the DVC campus construction is completed according to the master plans it will facilitate a maximum of 4000 to 5000 students, according to Hendstrand.

In the past DVC campus expansion included construction of the library building, which was finished in October, 1954. The library itself has recently been expanded and now seats 500.

THE $189,000 Student Union Building was completed in 1957. Recently a language laboratory for student use, provided by funds from the federal government through the National Defense Education Act, was installed in the library building.

Also constructed on the campus was a technical education building, several parking lots and the new Science Center.

The special two-year occupational program will be expanded when a course in dental hygiene, scheduled for next fall, and a registered nurse training program, set for a later date, are added to the list of courses, Hendstrand said.

A change in the class pattern system time schedule is also planned for next fall. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday class time will continue to be the usual one-hour meeting. Then on Tuesday and Thursday class time will be 75 minutes each.

THE MONEY that supports the junior college district and provides funds for expansion comes from taxes. The county provides 70 per cent and the state provides most of the rest according to the average daily student attendance.

Simon Sponsors Custom Model Car Contest

A model car customizing contest will be sponsored by Simon Hardware Company, South Main and Botelho Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

The contest will begin March 1, and will continue through March 18, at 4 p.m., when winners will be announced and awards will be presented, according to Tom Merry, store manager.

Participants will pick the customizing kits of their choice from the Simon selection. They will complete an official entry blank and will submit the finished model, the entry blank and cash register receipt, he said.

There are two classifications—one for boys and girls up to age 12, and the other for boys and girls 13 years and older.

The prizes will be on display at Simon during the contest.

The boys' and girls' customized model car entries will also be displayed during the contest, and will be returned to their owners after the announcement of winners.

Merry said the entries will be judged on neatness, completeness and aptness of thought.

Crandell succeeds Mark Owen as president.

Members of the club also voted to hold meetings on the last Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. at Strandwood School.

Plans were made to have a different subject discussed at each meeting by an authority in various phases of political activity.

The speaker for the meeting on February 23 will be Tom Reilly of the Republican Central Committee.

All interested citizens are invited to join with the group for this session.

Unification Educational Advantage Is Chief Issue

According to the board of trustees of the Orinda Union School District, which met Monday evening at the Pine Grove School with two representatives of Odell Associates, an educational consultant group from the Stanford Department of Education, the crux of the unification proposal is whether or not unification will be an educational advantage, since other considerations are less important.

Opinions and views were shared between the board and consultants at the special meeting as to what the proposed school district unification study should encompass, in light of a possible educational advantage.

THE ODELL Association group, consisting of William H. Strand, William R. Odell and James D. MacConnell, were asked by the board to make specific recommendations as to: (a) whether school district unification will be of benefit to the public education system of the area; (b) what form of school district ogranization should be adopted in order to realize the best educational objectives with the greatest possible economy.

The group was directed by the board to secure available data and gather any additional data needed in order to make their recommendation.

FURTHER, potentail land areas which could be used for school expansion, existing parental loyalty to the present district, and a look at the ultimate population saturation in the area must be considered by the consultant group, was suggested by the board.

BUSH SAID that the board wanted facts and specific reasons why, as to whether or not unification is desirable for this area.

A BEAUTIFUL front entrance of Palo Verde stone and driftwood adds distinction to the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rohwer of 1 Dover Court. The large planter before the entrance is filled with selected evergreens. Robert Babcock was the landscape architect and the home was built by Stanley Bergeson.

PANELING of Oak lends warm beauty to the spacious living room and front hall of the Rohwer home. Mrs. Rohwer is pictured seated by the attractive bookshelves. The living room also has a lovely fireplace of palo verde stone.

Pine Grove: Old Guns

Lou Browning, seventh grade student, has an authentic display of guns in the Revolutionary period. Lou's father, a descendant of the Browning gun family, collects guns as a hobby. Some of these guns are:

"Brown Bess' Tower Musket—the great English military weapon of the Revolutionary war period. This was the standard regulation infantry musket. The adjective "Brown" applies to the browning of the barrel in order to make them rust proof. "Bess" is derived from the original "Buchse" of the Germans.

The weapon weighed from 11½ to 12½ pounds, with a bore of .77-.80 and took a lead ball of 12 to the pound. The barrel was 45/46 inches.

"TOWER" Blunderbuss—these short barreled guns were included as regular armament of the British warships. These arms were used for repelling boarders or for the use of landing parties. These guns fired anything from 4 ounces to a pound of slugs at a time and were quite deadly for close-in fighting. The normal range of these weapons was from 10/20 paces.

"Tower" sea service pistol—approximately 24 bore pistol—issued as a service weapon. Tower "Carbine-bored" horse pistol.

The above weapons used for hand-to-hand fighting and issued to the military service.

THE "HORSE pistol" exhibited is by the celebrated D. Egg and undoubtedly was a pistol made for an officer.

Lou is also displaying lead soldiers about 3 inches high. These soldiers were made in England and wear uniforms of the Revolutionary War. When Lou's father took a trip to Europe, he brought back many models from 1 to 5 inches in eight wearing uniforms of various wars. Lou invites anyone interested in the display to visit the Pine Grove School Library.

Humanities Seminar Attracts Many Students

By CAROL PEDERSEN & SUSAN COX

The Humanities Seminar is a new program which has been organized by the adults in the community to stimulate the young people in the many facets of the humanities. The seminar is offered to all of the students at Miramonte who are interested.

There have been quite a few sign ups so far and there has been one meeting of students and parents which consisted of a lecture given by Dr. Elias Arnesen of San Francisco State. The seminar is a wonderful opportunity for all who are interested to learn about the Humanities and everyone is welcome and urged to attend.

THE PLANS for the new Teen-Age Recreation Center "14-20 Club" are in full swing. The teeners have launched a series of work weekends which started last Saturday and Sunday with two cake sales, and continuing this weekend with another cake sale and a car wash Saturday.

The purpose of the club is to provide a place for the teeners to go after school and on weekends to eat, dance, meet and just get together. Any suggestions for ideas on things like snack bars, swimming pool, auto shop, game room, or other things that you would like included in the plans will be greatly appreciated.

There were two meetings this last week at the home of Mike Finn, open to all interested, to discuss the various money raising activities, organizing and writing of a constitution, and a site on which to build the Center.

For those interested in attending the meetings to discuss plans for the club, Mike's address is 7 Pubelo Court, Orinda.

THE VARIOUS CLUBS at Miramonte are swinging into action starting with the Alantha's Fashion Show that was put on last Wednesday at the Happy Valley Inn. The Bobbies and Vireos and joining with three other junior groups sponsored by the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center to present "Twilight," a semi-formal dance at D.V.C. to be held on March 4. The cost is $2 per couple and the tickets are going fast, so make it a point to get yours now.

The Debs are having a cake sale on March 17, St. Patrick's Day, to raise money to support their adopted orphan, Roberto Fiorito, who is in an orphanage in Naples, Italy.

They are also busy making plans for their traditional spring formal which will be held sometime in April or May.

THE ROADSTER SHOW down at the Oakland Audtiorium has attracted practically all of Miramonte at one time or another this past week. Among the awseome on-lookers were Linda Bargones and Corbett Kroll who took time off to go down and convince Linda that there is a car that can actually run on air without wheels. We found that a little hard to believe too, Linda.

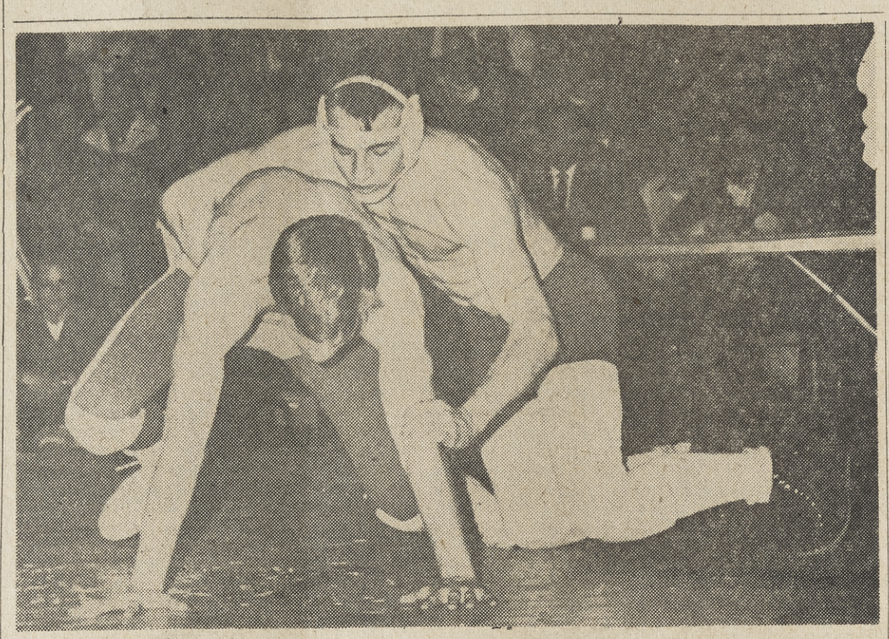
Las Lomas Certain of Title Share



KEITH THRAILKILL, Miramonte's fine wrestler (with head gear) gets the upper hand in his bout with Dave Rockwell of Pleasant Hill during the final match in the North Section Wrestling Tournament held at Acalanes High last Saturday. Knights Can Win It All By Beating Dons Tonight

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Las Lomas Knights cinched at least a tie for the Foothill League basketball title Tuesday by winning over San Ramon as Acalanes was being upset by Miramonte.

The Knights with nine wins in a row behind them lead the circuit by two games with two games to play.

They could wrap up the title tonight by beating the Dons. If they lose to Acalanes they could still cinch the outright crown by beating lowly San Ramon Tuesday in Walnut Creek.

Game time at Acalanes tonight is 8 p.m.

This is the third meeting of the year for the two clubs and while the games have been close in the first half the Knights have managed to win fairly comfortably with a second half surge.

THE DONS would feel a lot better about the whole season if they could upset the Knights tonight.

Games Tuesday
San Ramon at Las Lomas
Acalanes at Alhambra

(All afternoon games)

The Knights have been winning quite handily lately despite the fact that illness has plagued the team for the past weeks.

Bob Nichols sat out a game last week with a banged up ankle and Rene Brandol was out with the flu Tuesday for the Piedmont game.

The Dons will want to win this game real bad. Playing on their cozy home floor will be a definite advantage, but the pennant bound Knights will be tough to handle.

THE KNIGHTS have shown both a good offense and defense in their drive to the top spot.

In other games Miramonte, looking to move up into second place, is at Alhambra.

The Mats will be favored in this one, but the Bulldogs could prove troublesome if they can tighten their defense.

The Bulldogs have one of the circuit's top scorer in Jim Hammett.

With guard Bill Caldwell out of action for the past two week, Jack Gilbert has been the Mats top scorer. He is a definite all-league choice especially after his 34 point performance against Acalanes.

THE MATS had little trouble with the Bulldogs in their first two games and should come out on top in this contest.

The Matadors hope a fast finish will move them up in the standing to second place. They won their first five games before going on the skids. In two weeks they were out of contention and Las Lomas was sitting pretty.

Piedmont and San Ramon battle it out in the other league contest tonight.

The Clan has played fine ball in spots but appear to have lost their early season drive.

They were beaten easily by Acalanes and Las Lomas in their last two games.

However they should manage to chalk up a win over San Ramon. The Clan is a good shooting club generally and if Rick Prestwood is on target they'll be hard to stop.

The season comes to a close Tuesday as Las Lomas plays host to cellar-dwelling San Ramon.

Acalanes is at Alhambra and Piedmont at Miramonte in other games.

Foothill Loop Cuts Athletic Prgrams

The Board of Governors of the Foothill Athletic League announced a radical change in policy this week resulting from a closed meeting February 10.

The board drew up a tentative set of policies and regulations regarding the number of teams permitted in each inter-school sport, the number of games permitted each team, the length of the sport season and other matters pertaining to athletic competition.

The actual recommendations came to light when the principals of the league who compose the Board of Governors presented them for vote on a league basis at a meeting at Miramonte High School Monday night.

THE MEETING was held in conjunction with the athletic directors meeting.

The program as presented was on the radical side as far as athletics are concerned and in many cases proposals were made to cut schedules to the core.

The discussion was at times on the lively side and in the end some adjustments were made in the original presentation.

Football teams are now allowed six league games and two non-league contests.

Cross county is now allowed six league and one practice meet on a varsity, frosh and sophomore level.

Varsity and Bee basketball will have 12 league games and four non-league games. They now play 20 games a year.

Junior Varsity basketball is allowed six games, a cut of four games.

THERE is no freshman basketball allowed.

Varsity wrestling was cut from 12 to 10 matches.

There is no JV, Bee or Frosh wrestling allowed.

Varsity swimming was given four league meets.

An original proposal to allow only two non-league meets was changed to allow six, but no more than one a week will be permitted.

Varsity baseball like basketball was cut from 20 games to 16. Only one game per week is permitted. There will be 12 league games.

Jayvee baseball will consist of 10 league games.

Tennis will have 12 league matches and no outside games. There is no Jayvee tennis allowed.

TRACK by some strange line of reasoning was upped to six league meets and four non-league meets plus relays and a state meet.

The principals therefore give top billing to track over other sports.

Golf was limited to eight league and four practice matches with no Bee, JV or Frosh golf allowed.

The adoption of these rules and regulations was a step upward from the original proposal which was felt by many to be entirely out of reason.

The report itself came as a shock as it was felt that the program in the Foothill League was being run on a sound basis.

The problem seems to stem from the fact that there is a need for changing schedules to cut transportation costs to minimum. —Mattson

The Ski Line

Boys Take Back Seat To Young Female Skiers

By HEC HANCOCK

Seen at Squaw Valley, a young father, obviously weary from a long day of frolicking in the snow with his young tigers, being pulled on a sled across the valley floor by five youngsters, three to five years old.

Lined up in single file, at first glance they resembled a team of miniature huskies. Moving slowly but surely across the valley, they left a wave of chuckles in their wake. Mush on!

The past week end proved to be one of the busiest of the season thus far for the Sierra slopes.

BLESSED with a wonderful combination of fine snow conditions and spring-like weather, skiers flocked to the mountains in almost unprecedented numbers.

The younger set of Walnut Creek contributed considerably to the action.

Chris Odden, Tom Brungard, Gary Ford and Jan Marchiando were a few of the many youngsters that made trips with various youth and church groups.

Bud and Fran Daley of Walnut Creek gathered their family up and enjoyed the pleasures of Dodge Ridge.

R. M. and Joyce Havens, together with the Ted Schroder family, both of Walnut Creek, enjoyed the skiing at the Powder Bowl. Each family flew their own aircraft to Tahoe. What a great combination that must be, skiing and flying.

Another Walnut Creek entry, Nancie Keane, together with schuss boomers Gary and Katie Keane, spent the weekend at Tahoe and skied both days at Heavenly Valley.

THIS COMING weekend Rod Thom will supervise approximately 65 youngsters from Fairview Intermediate School in Lafayette.

This will be another group going with the express purpose of learning the basics of skiing. Instructions will be provided and it is anticipated the entire group will be able to handle the rope tow hill in fine shape by the end of the day.

A surprisingly large percentage of these groups are comprised of young ladies. Not only is the fairer sex in the majority, but these young gals take to skiing with an alacrity that is amazing.

Today these is considerable emphasis being placed on physical well being and condition.

With boys there isn't too big a problem in providing both interesting and healthful activity. There is plenty of baseball, football, basketball and track to take up the energies of all interested.

HOWEVER, this isn't entirely the case with our girls. As these young ladies approach high school, the list of participant sports dwindles in alarming proportions.

Either by desire or design their athletic endeavors for the most part are being limited to that of a spectator.

Skiing is one of the best activities for feminine participants.

For proof, one need look no further than to the very commendable manner the United States Women's Olympic ski team accredited itself at last year's Olympics.

It is also interesting to note that in the Jimmy Griffith Memorial race at Winter Park, Colorado, one of five races to be used to determine our 1962 FIS team, California girls picked up six of the first 10 places. Starr Walton and Smiley Tschopp of Sacramento were among the first five.

The Sportsmen

Great Crowd of Sportsmen OnHand for WC Meeting

By LARRY JACKSON

A banner crowd of 125 sportsmen attended the meeting of the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club, Inc., at its Main Street clubhouse Tuesday the 14th.

Many visitors and officials of other sportsmen groups were in attendance and projects of interest and reports of importance were discussed and presented.

On the whole one of the finest meetings on record in the mind of this writer who is an ol' vet at such events.

After a delightful chicken dinner, Prexy Dick Hansen opened the meetings introducing Art Evans as the M.C. as well as presenting Art with a club jacket with all the emblems as a token of his work and activity in the group.

ART MADE a report on the progress of the shooting range that the club, in conjunction with the Concord, Diablo and Baypoint clubs is sponsoring. The range work is moving along at a good clip but members are urged to put a bit more effort in the work as well as buy bonds for the land and upkeep.

This four club group will now be known as the United Sportsmen, Inc., and the land for the range is located at the end of Willow Pass Road and Norton in the Concord-Port Chicago area.

Ken Faunce, club representative to the Associated Sportsmen's Association, made his report on the last association meeting. He showed the new format of the association magazine and brought out the enlightening news that the club is sponsoring a $1000 scholarship for youngsters desiring to enter college for the forestry, game management, conservation or F. & G. department work. Indeed a farsighted and intelligent project.

Dr. Paul Needham, state trout and pollution expert, told of the proposed paper pulp mill being constructed at Anderson on the Sacramento and advised that action must be brought to see that all safety measures are made to prevent pollution from the mill.

HE STRESSED that pressure must be made by all sportsmen organizations to see that all is proper and conform in the best interests of the fish and to prevent pollution.

Paul Johnson, Lafayette, new prexy of the local chapter of the Ike Walton League, reported to the group that the chapter now had a meeting room in the P.G.&.E. building on Bonanza Street.

The first meeting of the year will be February 23 with meetings held after that on every fourth Thursday.

We had a most interesting talk after the meeting with Prexy Paul.

Guests for the first meeting will be Clarence Wilson, ex-prexy of the Associated Sportsmen's Association, and Bob Jones of the F. & G. department who will present tentative plans for reservoir openings.

WE WILL have more on this at a later date when plans have been formulated. We must add we go along with the idea wholeheartedly and have a few ideas of our own from previous meetings of this type that we will present when the time is ripe.

Other speakers: Jim Michelson, Concord, ex-president of the Associated Sportsmen's Association, added more to the new magazine setup and the object of it as well as the scholarship.

Dr. Richard Naismith, president of the Metropolitan Horseman's Association, spoke on the value of the horse and his contribution to conservation, stating that there are now over 7000 registered horses in Contra Costa County, making it a veritable horseman's paradise.

This speech received a loud "Aye" from that old quarter horse addict and fly tyer Jim Buck from nearby Concord.

THE MEETING closed with a set of hunting, fishing and general sports activities of British Columbia and parts of Canada, presented with interesting comments by Al Matthews and Wes Harbert.

St. Mary's Faces SJS, USF; Need Sweep for Title

St. Mary's cagers rose to the occasion last Saturday night and slammed league leading Loyola out of first place in the WCAC with a resouding 92-61 rout.

Urged on by a wildly partisan, horn tooting home crowd and paced by big Tom Meschery, the Gaels moved out in front early in the game and were never threatened.

The University of San Francisco moved into the West Coast Athletic Conference lead with a 6-1 record. Loyola is now 7-2 and St. Mary's 5-2.

Coach Jim Weaver's five now have to sweep all four league games left on the schedule to end up with a share of first place.

TOMORROW night the Gaels meet the Dons at 8 p.m. in the Oakland Auditorium.

They will be trying to duplicate last Saturday's game, but first they will have to get by rugged San Jose State tonight at San Jose.

The Suartans are the top defensive team in the nation and were nipped by one point, 40-39, by USF last Saturday. The Dons defeated St. Mary's 53-51 in their first meeting.

Loyola has two "soft touches" left on their league schedule with Pacific and Pepperdine. Barring a major upset the Lions should wind up the season with a 9-2 mark over the two league tailenders.

USF meets Santa Clara tonight, St. Mary's tomorrow and wind up the season with San Jose, Santa Clara again and then Pacific.

LOYOLA with its major games behind them, still is in the league driver's seat.

St. Mary's and USF each have rough roads to travel.

San Jose and Santa Clara will prove to be major stumbling blocks to a league title for both aspirants.

There is a possibility that the three league leaders could wind up in a three way tie, but first St. Mary's will have to beat the Dons.

Both teams will then have to sweep their final games. games.

Vikings End Loss Streak; Return to Home Court

The Diablo Valley College cagers return home for two weekend engagements after breaking a five game losing streak on the road last week.

The Vikings defeated Cabrillo College at Watsonville last Friday night, 44-38. It was the Viks second win of the year over Cabrillo.

Tonight at 8 p.m. at the DVC gym, the Viks entertain Hartnell College. Tomorrow evening they host Monterey Peninsula College. Both are Coast Conference games.

Las Lomas is the defending tournament champion.

The Knights are currently leading the Foothill basketball league.

Two other conference leaders among central California high school teams will also participate in the three-day tourney.

Tracy and Ceres, currently tied for the lead in the Valley Oak loop have accepted invitations to the tournament.

Dons All But Eliminated As Miramonte Pulls Upset

Acalanes saw its title aspirations go down the drain Tuesday night as center Jack Gilbert poured in a record 34 points as Miramonte roared to a 58-44 victory over the Dons.

Las Lomas cinched at least a tie for the title by walloping Piedmont earlier in the day, 58-35.

Gilbert scored on his first three shots from the floor as the Mats jumped out in front 10-1 in the first quarter.

THE DONS battled back and tied up the game at 15-all on Doug Treter's field goal with five minutes remaining in the second quarter. Gilbert then quickly added two more field goals and the Mats carried a 24-17 half time advantage.

The Mats increased their lead to 15 points as the second half started by outscoring the faltering Dons, 11-3. From then on it was just a question of how many points Gilbert would get.

After collecting seven field goals and one free throw in the first half, the 6-6 center found the Acalanes defense concentrating on him. In the third quarter the Dons held him to a single field goal, but he dropped in 10 of 11 free throws. The Don defenders just weren't going to let him shoot.

In the final period he added two field goals and three free throws before Coach Herb Graw put in the reserves.

GILBERT wound up with 10 field goals in 16 attempts and 14 charity tosses in 16 tries.

The free throws and total points established a Miramonte scoring record.

He now leads the Foothill individual scoring race with 188 points.

Forward Tom Strain was the only bright spot in a rather drab evening for the Dons. He scored five field goals and six free throws for 16 points and played an outstanding all around game.

Las Lomas was without the services of ace guard Rene Brandol, but still had more than enough to defeat Piedmont, 58-35.

Brandol was down in bed with the flu, but is expected to be back for the final games of the season.

THE KNIGHTS dominated the boards and led all the way. They grabbed a commanding 13-5 first quarter lead and held on for a 23-15 advantage at the half.

They outscored the Highlanders 14-10 in the third period before finishing with a rush in the final quarter with 21 points.

Guard Rick Scott had 16 points to pace the Las Lomas attack. High scoring Bob Nichols had 15. Bill Clayton had 11 for Piedmont.

Alhambra scored its third victory of the season by trouncing San Ramon, 64-44 in the other Tuesday game.

Both teams hit for 16 field goals but the Bulldogs collected an amazing 32 points at the free throw line while the Wolves had only 12.

Jim Howell was the game's top scorer with 15 points for the Wolves. Teammate K. C. Evans had 14.

The Las Lomas Knights kept up their winning ways last Friday night as they coasted to a 65-31 win over Alhambra.

Acalanes stayed in contention with a 57-45 victory over Piedmont and Miramonte sank San Ramon 49-33.

The Knights were never in trouble as they shot to a 17-6 first quarter lead and made it 30-12 at the half.

BUD NICHOLS who had been sidelined with a turned ankle proved to be fit and ready for the home stretch drive for the championship as he hit for 13 points.

Teammate Rod Holcomb also had 13 while Rene Brandol was high with 14.

The Acalanes Dons had early game trouble as Piedmont rolled to an 18-12 first quarter lead before the local five rallied to capture a 29-24 half time advantage.

The game was Acalanes the rest of the way as the Piedmont Clan managed but three points in the third quarter while the Dons hit for 11.

IN THE other Foothill League game Miramonte revenged an earlier defeat as they dumped the San Ramon Wolves, 49-33. The Wolves lone win this year was over the Matadors.

Rams Shoot For Upset

The Pleasant Hill Rams wind up their 1960-61 basketball season tonight when they meet the high scoring, league leading Pittsburg Pirates.

An upset win for the Rams would drop Pittsburg into a tie with Clayton Valley in the DVAL if CV wins tonight.

A Pittsburg win would clinch the title outright no matter what Clayton Valley does in its game.

Pittsburg is now 10-1 on the year while Clayton Valley is 9-2.

Pleasant Hill has a 6-5 record and rests in fourth place in the league.

If the Rams should win this one it would rate as one of the biggest upsets of the season in this area.

PLEASANT HILL chalked up a convincing 62-43 win over Antioch last Friday night before drawing a bye on Tuesday.

Guard Terry Hughes and center Dick Dole paced the Rams with 17 and 14 points respectively.

PH Wrestlers Tie For Section Title

Hayward and Pleasant Hill High Schools finished in a first place deadlock in the Northern Division of the North Coast Section California Interscholastic Federation Wrestling Tournament held last Saturday at Acalanes High School. Each team had 58 points to outclass the field.

Acalanes was a surprise third with 28 points with Castro Valley having 27, Miramonte 26, Mt. Diable 26, Arroyo, 23, San Lorenzo, 23, and College Park 22.

OTHER local team scoring were Pittsburg 19, Clayton Valley 18, Pacifica 17, San Ramon 13, Las Lomas 9, and Antioch 1.

Pleasant Hill, the OVAL champion, had a long winning streak halted by Hayward earlier in the year and then were defeated again by the Farmers in an East Bay Tourney. The Rams were defending champions last tourney.

Miramonte finished fifth in the tourney Saturday after sharing the Foothill title with Acalanes and winning the post-season league tourney.

IN ITS first year of competition, College Park showed up many other schools by finishing ninth in the big field.

Twenty-six schools took part in the all-day event with 126 top wrestlers, who qualified through their own league meets, engaging in 146 bouts.

The top four men in each of the twelve weight divisions were awarded medals. The top three in each weight qualified for the state meet to be held at Turlock High School tomorrow.

Pleasant Hill qualified five boys for the state tourney while College Park had two first place winners.

Acalanes qualified two wrestlers as did Miramonte. Las Lomas will have one representative as will San Ramon.

No Safe Stop! But It's Not Safe To Walk, Either

Have you ever seen the California Highway Patrol pull a school bus over to the side of the road?

Seems like a pretty unlikely happening, but it may be that the CHP and our school buses are going to meet.

According to a new state law, passed after a child in the eastern part of this county was killed, each school bus stop must have a 250-foot visibility where the bus can pull off the road, and 400 feet of visibility where the bus must stop on the road.

In the interest of safety, this is probably a very wise law.

BUT OBVIOUSLY, for every one of our communities, this poses almost insuperable problems.

A 400 foot stretch is more than half the length of a football field. How many of our winding residential roads allow this kind of visibility?

The answer, of course, is very few.

The problem is particularly difficult in Orinda, with its hills, and in Lafayette. But it is no less difficult in Walnut Creek and Alamo. Pleasant Hill has yet a different kind of problem. Because the streets curve through the subdivisions the way they do, visibility is restricted.

OBVIOUSLY THE legislators and the CHP are considering the safety of our little ones first, and thinking of convenience afterwards. And this is as it should be.

But it is going to take close cooperation between the highway patrol and the school people to find the best bus stops available.

In fact, they are going to have to resurvey each of the many stops on their routes. One district official has already commented that in some cases, if the law is rigidly enforced, there may be as much as two miles between allowable bus stops.

And the highway patrol must enforce the law. We are all in agreement when it comes to the safety of our children, but there also has to be a practical answer.

IT IS OBVIOUSLY impractical to ask a first grader to walk a mile and a half to a bus stop. The parents might as well drive the youngster to school.

But nobody wants to see this same first grader in danger at a bus stop.

Another question that needs answering, however. If it is not safe for buses to stop with limited visibility, is it safe for children to walk long distances along these same roads to get to a safe bus stop?

All these things must be considered, as well as the letter of the law. But we feel that the problems can be worked out with close cooperation between the CHP and the school officials.

A Little Moral Fibre... Our People Have it

It is a pleasure to watch the moral fibre of a responsive and sensitive area at work, and we are having that pleasure right now.

This week is National Brotherhood Week, and it is good to turn our eyes to what is happening right here with the Open Housing Covenant.

We were pleased, over a year ago, to point out the need for racial understanding, not only throughout the whole world, but especially right here at home. Since that time we have re-affirmed this belief in subsequent editorials.

AND THE community . . . or to be more exact, the wonderful people who make up our community, have made this affirmation themselves through the present Open Housing Covenant.

It is important, we feel, that people should realize that what happens to personal, racial relations in an area is not up to "the realtors" or "the builders" but up to each and every individual.

THE ORGANIZATIONS which have brought this about have done a wonderful thing. They have brought the whole matter into the light of community, and personal, thinking. And this is good for both the community and the individual.

It takes moral fibre on the part of the individual who signs the Open Covenant, and it takes careful thought on the part of the individual who chooses not to.

It is good for all of us.

The Way Things Are, It Might As Well Be Spring!

By MARIE MONAHAN

FUNNY MOODY month of February . . . & a neither Lambnor-Lion March!

This is the In-Between Time when each day is unpredictable, as changable & fickle as a fifteen-year old gil.

IT MIGHT AS WELL BE Spring . . . Mother Nature has rolled out the Green Carpet to wall-to-wall Suburbia . . . Patches of purple clover peek up through the pastures & the vernal hillsides are mottled in Van Gogh patterns of wild yellow mustard.

WE HAVEN'T seen the ground hog yet, but—the sword-like leaves of hyacinth are spearing their way up through Mother Earth & the sight of delight is each daffy dilly bowing its yellow-bonnet & dropping its curtsy in the direction of Lady Spring.

The kids have the world by the kite-tail & the yoyo string & the colorful shapes climb a cloudless sky like so many floral fireworks.

IT'S THE TIME when a Young Man's Fancy . . . & the new kittens are curling up with their Mother Cat.

A flock of birds fleck the sky as together they search out their new spring subdivisions homes in the best trees in suburbia. No FHA necessary.

BUT THEN IT MIGHT as well be Winter . . . The children have colds in their heads, comics, crumbs & Kleenex in their beds, aches in their ears & lumps in their throats.

THEY'RE short on Kleenex, long on "room service" & wearing on Mother, who, nursing her own cold, has added general Nursemaid to her chores.

WE HAVE Cream of Wheat in the mornings, a summery salad on the patio in the noonday sun & are ready for icecream cones in the hot afternoon. Steaming stew at night.

THE SHADE IS cold & dark & damp & the little buds (Hiya Bud!) are shivering in their shoots. The changing shafts of sun play hide & go seek in new parts of the house & lighten each room like a Spring Tonic.

There are artichokes simmering on the stove . . . & Hot Cross Buns in the oven.

The school haul of sentimental Valentine's Day is still kicking around in the sofa cushions, on the kitchen wall . . . & the children are up on their Lincoln lessons as well as on Md. Washington . . . in whose honor Mom baked a Martha Washington cake . . . or a FROZEN cherry pie, she cannot tell a lie!

ONE MINUTE we've got rain on the roof, a cozy fire . . . the next, we're out & tracking down the end of a brilliant rainbow, feeding the birds, shedding our coat & by some subliminal suggestion, suddenly on the threshold of the local nursery.

We're full of seeds . . . & flats of flowers. The kitchen could stand a painting, in fact, the whole house could! We're long on ideas, but short on energy.

THE SKY is ominously gray & black one day, we're Lost In A Fog the next . . . & before the week is out, the sky is blue & bright with clouds like feather quill pens writing in wisps of script, a Salute To Spring across the sky.

THE LADIES are breaking out their straw hats & lavendar & yellow chapeaus dot the church pews like pretty posies ina florist shop.

IT'S THE LENTEN SEASON, time to take inventory, to take stock of our spiritual selves, a time to plan, to improve.

We're neither inside—nor outside. We're playing a Waiting Game with the Weather & the changing of the Season. The way it is, we like it here.

Transplanted and Happy

By GEORGE COLBURN

Ye Gads it's a beautiful day!

I can hardly believe that it's the middle of February.

Now you probably think this writer is some kind of a nut or something, but give him a chance, he'll explain.

You say this weather is fairly common.

Well it isn't common where I come from.

I've been in California for two months now and like I said before, I can hardly believe it. And it's only February!

I'd hardly have the inspiration to write this because my boss has me suppressed (he's really a nice guy though).

ON A DAY like this he makes me stay inside and work. This is hard on a person like me. The fact is—I don't like to work—ever.

But it's particularly hard on such a lovely day in February.

I get here before the sun is really sunning and I leave as it's ready to quit (sometimes later).

I've got the situation whipped today though. I've rolled the typewriter table out to the front of the building (out of my dingy dungeon), opened the door real wide and now those golden rays are pouring in on me.

Now you can understand how I'm getting so fired up to write this little piece.

If I was back in that section of the building laughingly called an office I'd be in a miserable mood.

Now I'm quite happy and contented.

AS HAPPY and contented as any man is when he has to work on such a gorgeous day, that is. (I think I'll take two hours for lunch.)

But to get back to the real reason for this odd ecstacy over the weather.

I hail from a land that is dark and cold during the period of the year called Winter.

I take great joy in looking at the U.S. Weather Map each day to find my homeland has another cold blast ready to strike. I look at the U.S. temperatures and clap my hands when I notice the temperature sank to zero at "home" the previous night.

Believe me I'm not being sadistic. I just feel those freezing people have no one to blame but themselves.

I GOT AWAY from it all so why shouldn't I gloat? I'll venture to say that a lot of you people reading this made a similar move at one time.

Even though I clip out mentions of the homeland when they have a real cold spell or a lot of snow and mail it to certain friends, I don't feel like I'm being a bit mean.

Just to make them feel a little better, I also clip out the local weather as published in The Sun and send that along with a little "ha-ha" attached.

Even during that "terrible cold spell" (as my landlady put it) here a few weeks ago, I was perfectly contented. I didn't mind temperature in the low 40's. After all it was 10 below where I come from.

PEOPLE AT HOME thought I was nuts when I told them I was leaving. But after 22 winters of cold, snow, slush, hail, traffic accidents because of frozen streets, ice, etc., I had had enough.

The night before I left the temperature had plunged to two above zero—and winter hadn't officially arrived according to the calendar.

Funny thing happened to all those people who thought I was nuts for leaving.

They all came up to me (in a very secretive way so nobody else could hear what they were saying) and told me they wished they could go too.

For one reason (real or not) they couldn't, however.

It was a long trip and times were hard for a few weeks.

But I'm glad I came.

You know why?

Because it's such a beautiful day today, that's why.

Those golden rays make my move quite worthwhile.

SCHOOL PLANS

Dear Editor:

On February 17 you had an editorial, "Why not use them again if they work out well?" discussing the re-use of plans for schools.

In all of the discussion reported on this possible economy for school districts, the entire area of potential economy has been considered to be the cost of architects' fees.

Actually I think there is a much greater area of economy—the reduction of construction cost through development of more efficient use of labor resulting from increased familiarity with the design as it is used over again.

During World War II I had a particular example of this when, in a foreign country, we contracted from local firms for the construction of standard barracks. During a period of 2 years the bid price for construction (materials were supplied by the U.S. government), the increased familiarity with the construction required and the increased competition brought the bid price down by over 60 per cent!

In local residential construction I believe that you can confirm with builders that each time they repeat a basic design for a home they find ways of doing it cheaper. There have been many stories in national home builder publications stressing the importance of this in improving "value per dollar" in residential construction.

Thus the potential savings to the school districts is not, as some suggest, a 2 per cent or 3 per cent saving of architects' fees—but a possible 5 per cent or 10 per cent saving in the bid price as contractors become more familiar with the design, modifications are made in the design to eliminate features that are unduly costly, certain prefabrication or specialized subcontracting areas develop.

SWIM CLUBS

Dear Editor:

It is very gratifying to see in your last two issues so much publicity devoted to swim clubs in the area, especially since we have been a family of AAU swimmers for the past five years and have felt that as far as sports writers are concerned swimming events are not even as newsworthy as yo-yo contests.

We hope that with the advent of the new AAU clubs in Concord and Pleasant Hill that you will increase your sports coverage in the field of competitive swimming.

I SHOULD also like to note that although the Diablo Valley Club may have a "nucleus of youngsters . . . from the Pleasant Hill Swim Club," the PHSC is still very much in business under the joint sponsorship of the PHSC Parents' Association and the recreation department.

This club has carried the name of Pleasant Hill to meets from Modesto to Redding, to Phoenix, Arizona, and St. Louis, Mo., and in swimming circles has put our community "on the map."

UNDER COACH Ron Noakes, whose new Diablo Valley "Aqua Devils" will probably give us fits, we have been a power to reckon with in Northern California competition.

We expect to take our share of honors again this year.

Send your reporter over with his "snorkel" this summer and keep an eye on us!

A PHSC "bleacher swimmer."

Aloha, You All! Wanna Join Sun's Sea Party

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

How would you like to be on the deck of the smooth-sailing Lurline heading for Hawaii?

Would you like the leisure and fun of traveling on a great resort ship, enjoying every comfort and luxury with the magic of Hawaii in the offing?

Would you like such a wonderful trip if the cost were much less than ever before?

If this sounds like a travel plug, it is.

I can't keep a secret

Today I'm going to scoop our front page and talk about some plans we are working on — The Sun's Suburbia Sea Party to Hawaii!

All details have not been completed but I'm so excited that I can't be silent any longer.

The Sun is now completing plans with Matson Lines to offer you and your friends a "fabulous fortnight of fun, fine dining and service plus six to eight days in Hawaii." We are planning this in cooperation with Suburbia Today magazine (included with The Sun each month) and some of the leading suburban papers of the United States.

We are pleased . . .

We are rather proud because The Sun is the only weekly newspaper in Northern California to be chosen to participate.

But let me tell you about the Sea Party — and we'll talk "how much" in a couple of paragraphs. This is what The Sun's Suburbia Sea Party includes:

1. Limousine service, San Francisco to Matson pier, if needed.

2. Cruise to Hawaii, probably on the Lurline. Your accommodations are in a beautiful cabin with twin beds, private shower and toilet. This becomes a roomy, comfortable sitting room during day.

The famous Matson food

You'll enjoy four-and-a-half days of luxury cruising including Matson's famous meals, snacks and 'round-the-clock entertainment for those who wish.

3. Special Aloha Champagne Party.

4. Lei greeting on arrival in Hawaii — a special Malihini welcome.

5. Limousine transfer to and from Waikiki hotel.

6. The fabulous Hawaiian Village is your hotel. Meals not included.

7. Choice of either Circle Island tour of Oahu or a Catamaran boat tour of Pearl Harbor.

8. Return cruise to California with a completely different program of events from the first trip. Hawaii returns with you aboard ship for four-and-one-half days.

All advantages of a "tour"

The "tour" will leave sometime in May. I place quote marks around "tour" because it will not be a tour in the sense that someone will push you around. There will be a representative to answer your questions but he'll do little more — only see that everything is okay. This is a leisure Sea Party and there's no need for a tour in the usual sense of the word.

Yet, you can have all the advantages of a tour — transportation to and from hotels, confirmed reservations, sightseeing in Oahu — and all at a low, low price.

How much?

The total package is $598.50.

Do you know that in June the two-way Lurline trip for just the ship accommodations costs $760? Remember the $595.50 includes all transportation, sea and land, hotel, tour, limousine service and special events.

In good hands . . .

All reservations, details, etc., will be handled by your local travel agents. This is done, of course, at no cost to you. In about a week they will have complete details.

Meanwhile, if you or your friends or any organization are interested, drop The Sun a card and we'll mail you the folder soon as it is finished. Or, if you have any immediate questions, call me.

Aloha, and let's go!

BUREAU

Dear Editor:

With the twelfth year now closed on the Christmas Bureau Project, we have time to take stock and review the growth of this community effort.

Initiated by Mrs. Harmon Howard and sponsored in its early years by the Oakland Junior League, Santa Claus Anonymous has helped bring Christmas cheer to nearly 1000 families in our area.

More than 2000 children have had tons of toys to greet them on Christmas morning because of good and kind people in the Diablo Valley.

Adult organizations such as the American Red Cross, Lions, Kiwanis, Soroptimists, local women's clubs, American Legion, etc., etc., have contributed money, food, toys and much service to the Christmas Bureau.

BUT IT has been the efforts of our own children which have made this more than a mere collection of canned goods and useful toys.

Brownies, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, 4-H groups, as well as our high school students, have spent countless hours designing and making gay items for the needy child.

Pine cones stuffed with candies, imaginative Christmas trees made of such things as toothpicks, cheery stockings filled with goodies—all this and much more have our youngsters done solely to help others.

THEY GAVE without knowing the recipient—we are Santa Claus Anonymous — and they now reserve a bow.

Children who gave up allowances, their best toys and games, all these make up the heartwarming community service known at the Christmas Bureau and/or Santa Claus Anonymous.

MRS. JOHN SELLEY

Dear Editor::

Just a word of appreciation for your excellent coverage of our Fourth Saint Mary's Symposium for business and industrial executives.

While these Symposia are authentic newsmakers, we know that much of their success is due to the interest and cooperation of newspapers.

Brother Xavier joins me in expressing our sincere thanks, and the hope that you will be with us again next year.

SCHOOL BONDS

Dear Editor:

We were highly pleased, as we know you were, at the outcome of the bond election Feb. 14. We feel that the success of the election is due largely to the excellent work of our Citizens Committee, and to the fine coverage and fine support we received from the newspapers of our area.

It is most gratifying to know that we can continue our building program into the future so that the high school pupils of our district can be properly housed.

Thank you again for all your efforts. Your interest on behalf of our young people is greatly appreciated.

RETARDED

Dear Editor:

The East Contra Costa County Council for the Retarded wish to thank you for the excellent news coverage you gave us recently concerning the Lynn School and the Lynn Training Center.

With the help of publicity such as you have given us, we can continue our good work.

Les Girls at Las Vegas Daze of Gold Ball Tonite

By MARIE MONAHAN

Overworked muscles and qualms of self-consciousness will be forgot tonight when the stage lights go on and up for the gilt-edged gala stage show presented by members of the Oakland Junior League.

The highlight of "Daze of Gold," the big biennial benefit, will be the sparkling stage revue "Les Girls of Las Vegas," a fast paced and high stepping production culminating two weeks of hectic and hurried rehearsals for members of the cast.

Contra Costa's contribution to the chorus ranks as well as the lead parts is a pretty good percentage of the countryside members, not to mention others who will serve on various committees.

The sizable feat of transforming the Claremont's many rooms into a Casino-type atmosphere will have had the deft decorating touches of Mrs. Dana (Fran) Leavitt. Ticket sales (and we hear its already a sellout success for a thousand guests at $25 per couple!) were in the well organized hands of Mrs. Robert (Jan) Angell of Lafayette.

Working at pleasant duties as hostesses tonight under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jack (Marian) Eyman of Lafayette will be Mesdames Oliver Hamlin, John Clark, Donald Wells, Harold Fredericks, Richard Ward and William Wiesekirch, all of Lafayette.

More young matrons who will attend to the seating of guests at dinner as well as at the stage show, will be Mesdames William Emory, William Prucha, Bruce Howard, Joseph Longacre, Kenneth Volker, William Orchison, Pierre Pellissier, Scott Ramsden, Joseph Sweet and Peter Zischke of Orinda.

Now for the high kicks and the whittled-down waistlines department, we have rigorously rehearsed lead parts being taken by Mrs. Robert (Alice) Von der Lieth of Lafayette, Mrs. Thomas (Holly) Fitch of Orinda and Gerald Breuner of Orinda.

Contra Costans perfecting their pivots in the chorus line include Mesdames Fortney Stark, Johnson Slark of Lafayette, Mesdames Gerrold Cullinanne and John Glover of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Thomas Lowry of Danville, Mesdames Edwin Flinn, Richard Cotter, Sydney Smith Jr. and William Sayer Snook, all of Orinda, and Mrs. Robert Cuenin of Diablo.

Husbands and wives who are "in this together" for the sheer fun and exhaustion of it are the Paul Mousers and Robert Harrings of Orinda as well as the John Hensens and Norm Millers of Lafayette.

Stepping into spring ensembles for the 7:30 fashion promenade will be Mrs. Harold (Caroline) Havre, Mrs. Gordon (Patsy Ruth) French and Richmond (Cynthia) Stampley, all of Orinda and Mrs. Robert (Sally) Peterson of Danville.

The eager leaguers may be limping on the morrow, but it's a sure thing that tonight when the curtain goes up and the crowds applaud, the rigorous rehearsals will be just a memory dimmed by tonight's success!

A COLOR MOVIE of the Congo, filmed by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Diddle of Oakland, will help shed some light on "the dark continent" during the Easter Fair "African Night" on March 4. Displaying some of the atmosphere which will prevail during the timely event are: left to right, Mrs. Alfred Masters of Lafayette, a member of Rowan Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay; Mrs. Diddle, a member of Hill Jr. Branch and coordinating chairman of Easter Fair; and Mrs. Eric Nielsen of Orinda, a member of Rowan Branch. The Fair, which will run March 3 through 5 at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont, will benefit the part-pay program at Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

African Trip Planned for Easter Fair

The pulse of Africa will sound at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont on March 4.

A feature length color movie of the Congo, taken by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Diddle of Oakland, will fill the Gold Room of the Claremont with the roar of wild beasts and the ferocity of primitive rites. Colonel Frederick Buechner of Saratoga will add his views on the current unrest of African revolution to this timely Easter Fair event.

The Diddles' African trip lasted seven weeks. "And we really feel fortunate to have come out alive and well," says Mr. Diddle. "Besides the danger from natives and disease, there were the animals—an elephant sent a tree crashing to the ground outside our door one night."

Visitors to "African Night" will see it all in the film "This Is Africa — Equatorial;" the Diddles' tree house in northern Kenya and the animals stalking and stomping below; their eight-day trip by boat up the 1200-mile Congo River and the villages they visited along the way; the picturesque dances of the "tall people," the seven to eight foot Watusi tribesmen; the life of the pgymies of the Efe tribe; and the other episodes of this trip through the Congo just before the uprisings last summer.

Colonel Buechner was in Africa just after the uprisings. Besides being a syndicated columnist and magazine writer, Colonel Buechner is a world traveler. During Easter Fair's "African Night," he will discuss "The Myth of African Nationalism."

Assisting Mrs. Diddle with arrangements for the outstanding event will be Mrs. J. McNeil Crawford of Holly Branch and Mrs. Norman Hearn of Hill Jr. Branch.

"African Night" will begin at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $2.25 and can be obtained from branch members or the Office of the Branches, 731 52nd Street, Oakland 9.

Reminiscences of Paris Enhances Therapy Event

Almost a thousand volunteers from the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center are working on a fund raising event that promises to be one of the biggest in the center's history.

All 17 Therapy Center volunteer units and their members are working on the event, to be called "Easter in Paris" and to be held March 18 at the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek.

For "Easter in Paris" the shopping center will be transformed into a series of outdoor Paris cafes. The cafes will serve snacks to persons who have made $1 contributions to the Therapy Center.

Besides the cafes, there will be a host of other colorful features to make the March 18 affair a success.

French youngsters singing Easter songs, fashion models promenading through the open-air cafes, a wine tasting event inside a bright circus tent, and many other affairs for adults and children alike will be part of the big day.

On display at tables and throughout the shopping center will be miniature Eiffel Towers, Arches of Triumph and other reminiscences of Paris. Wonderful prizes will be given away to honor the "Easter in Paris" event.

Coordinating the affair is Mrs. Marvin Kennedy of Orinda, chairman of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center coordinating council. Working closely with Mrs. Kennedy are Mrs. William Brobeck and Mrs. Robert Spitzack and Mrs. Robert Schroder, all of Walnut Creek.

Each unit president of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center Auxiliary is in charge of selling tickets. Unit presidents are: Mrs. Frank Tebbs of Orinda, Orioles; Mrs. Richard Leland of Orinda, Tanagers; Mrs. Ted Lake of Alamo, Mary Doyle Auxiliary; Mrs. K. S. Welch of Lafayette, Larks; Mrs. M. F. Ohman of Concord, Robins; Mrs. Fred Seulberger of Lafayette, Linnets; Mrs. Fred Hair of Alamo, Towhees; Mrs. Robert Kuhn of Walnut Creek, Flamingos.

Also selling tickets are: Mrs. Allan M. De Soto of Martinez, Starlings; Mrs. Harold Vincent of Walnut Creek, Flickers; Mrs. Fred Latham of Walnut Creek, Hummingbirds; Mrs. R. Westlye of Lafayette, Cardinals; Mrs. Thomas Nilon of Walnut Creek, Linnet Juniors; Mrs. David L. Brenner of Pittsburg, Wrens; Mrs. Clyde Wilson of Orinda, Quails; Mrs. John Gilcrest of Lafayette, Swallows; and Mrs. Alfred E. Patch of Martinez, Nightingales.

Hadassah Plans Theater Party

Diablo Valley chapter of Hadassah invites you to take a "Visit to a Small Planet" for the second annual theater party on March 4, at Lafayette Town Hall, Moraga Road in Lafayette; the play is being given by the Dramateurs.

Proceeds from this theater party will benefit Youth Aliyah and other Hadassah youth projects.

Kappa Delta Alumnae Join Hearts, Flowers

Kappa Delta alumnae are combining "Hearts and Flowers" for their annual benefit at 12:30 p.m., Saturday, at the Kappa Delta house, 2461 Warring Street, Berkeley.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Donald Nagle, San Leandro, and proceeds will be contributed to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Alameda County.

Mrs. Conway Pendleton, Oakland, will be in charge of the luncheon to be served promptly at 12:30.

Table decorations are under the supervision of Mrs. Donald Waite, Castro Valley, and floral arrangements will be done by Mrs. Wickes Glass, Piedmont.

FOLLOWING the luncheon guests will have a preview of new spring fashions from Andre Godet's of Berkeley. Modeling for the occasion are Mrs. Donald Anderson, Orinda; Mrs. Howard Crandall, Orinda; Mrs. Richard Erickson, Kensington; Mrs. George Killam, Richmond; Mrs. Carl Johnson, Oakland; Mrs. William Lord, Orinda; commentators will be Mrs. John Chittenden, Kensington, and Mrs. Richard Fulrath, Berkeley.

Mt. Diablo alumnae of Kappa Delta will present a display of candles for all occasions, and guests are invited to spend the remainder of the afternoon playing cards.

Mrs. Kenneth Beebr, Kensington, is in charge of awards. Reservations for day may be made with the chairman, Mrs. Nagle.

Dancin' With Anson Closes Easter Fair

The roaring days of spit-curls and Charleston, Charleston! are back—and so is Dancin' with Anson, the Easter Fair memory-reviver.

Easter Fair will run three entertainment-packed days, March 3, 4 and 5 at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont. The Fair is sponsored by the auxiliary branches of Children's Hospital of the East Bay to benefit the hospital's part-pay program.

According to Mrs. Bernard Butler of Oakland and Laurel Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay, who is chairman of Easter Fair's Dancin' with Anson, the tea-dance decorations will add to the romantic atmosphere of the event. Flowers and green leaves, tied with bright satin ribbon, will adorn the pillars of the Garden Room. Matching baskets on the small intimate tables will hold "appetite-teasers." And, the spectacular Dancing Waters, currently thrilling Hotel Claremont Garden Room guests, will perform during the event.

The hotel's buffet dinner, at its regular price, will be available to Dancin' with Anson guests.

Assisting Mrs. Butler with arrangements for Dancin' with Anson are Mrs. Melvin Chapman of Oakland and Laurel Branch, co-chairman for the tea dance, and Mrs. Russell Wilson of Piedmont and Hill Jr. Branch, decorations.

To insure dancing room for everyone at Easter Fair's Dancin' with Anson, the number of guests will be limited to 800. So, reservations must be made early. Tickets are $4 per person and can be obtained by sending a check, payable to Children's Hospital of the East Bay, plus a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Mrs. David Gideon, 5858 Margarido Drive, Oakland 18.

Easter Fair is one of the major fund-earning projects undertaken by the auxiliary branches of Children's Hospital of the East Bay to benefit the hospital's part-pay program. This program assists thousands of children from families with limited financial means who are treated at the hospital.

Guild Plans Twenties Theme For Benefit

"The Roar of the Twenties" is the dinner party and entertainment theme for the annual benefit being planned for March 4 at the Walnut Creek Elks Club, by the Tuolumne Guild of John Muir Hospital.

Mrs. Alan Ory is the general chairman. The committee chairmen are: Mrs. John Knowles, food; Mrs. Donald Sterns, entertainment; Mrs. William Walton, publicity; Mrs. Eugene Whitney, decorations.

Costumes appropriate with the theme are optional, but encouraged.

Reservations for this fund raising event can be made by phoning Mrs. Frank Spencer at CL 4-4102.

Parties Benefit Adoption Agency

A "Prelude to Spring" was the theme for six luncheon card parties given simultaneously yesterday by Kim chapter, Children's Home Society, to benefit the society's statewide private adoption program.

The affairs were given in the homes of members of Kim chapter in Orinda, Berkeley, Oakland and El Cerrito. Each hostess was assisted by other chapter members in preparing and serving the luncheons. Azaleas in gaily decorated pots were the decor for the luncheon tables.

Among those offering her home for the luncheon was Mrs. Cyril Hurray, Orinda. Co-hostesses at the Hurray home were: Mesdames Gilbert Ashcom, Fred Digby, David Neilsen, E. Standish.

Flamingos Salute Italy At Annual Floral Tea

The Flamingo unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center has begun preparations for its eighth annual floral tea and fashion show to be held at Diablo Country Club on March 14 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. with fashions to be shown at 2 p.m.

This year the theme salutes Italy—"Viva Italia"—and the chairman is Mrs. Charles Webb.

Her committee consists of Mrs. William Ebke, fashions; Mrs. Frank Fing, decorations; Mrs. Eugene Ingalls, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Olcott, cookie sales; Mrs. Mike McDonald, programs; Mrs. Robert Anderson, tickets; Mrs. Jack Best, room arrangements; Mrs. Walter Reed, donations; Mrs. Donald Johnson, floral arrangements; and Mrs. Robert Mattoon, publicity. The beautifully decorated tea tables are again being done by Mrs. Edward Lazzareschi.

Many organizations of the East Bay have already accepted invitations to participate in the floral arrangement competition. This year, the three categories for competition are "Symphony in Song," "Madonna," and "Reflections of Italy."

A featured attraction will be the well-known local artist, Katy Madsen, doing sketches of the guests in the foyer.

All proceeds from this function help support the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Pleasant Hill, and tickets may be purchased from any member of Flamingo unit, from Mrs. Robert Anderson, AT 3-6636, or Mrs. Webb, YE 5-6738.

Junior Museum Board Accepts Alliance Gift

Alex Lindsey, president of the Diablo Junior Museum board of directors, today announced receipt of the annual contribution from the Diablo Junior Museum Alliance, this year in the amount of $1700.

This figure represents a year of fund raising activities by the alliance, foremost among them being the monthly "First Wednesday" fashion luncheons at the Red Mill.

"It is with a great deal of gratitude that the board of directors accepts this gift since it symbolizes an additional step toward the realization of a six year dream, that of a naural science museum for the community to be erected on the old Heather Farm property, overlooking the lake two miles northeast of Walnut Creek.

"The summer workshop program in natural sciences sponsored by the Diablo junior museum at the Walnut Creek school has met with such eagerness among the youngsters that we are extremely anxious to embark upon our proposed building program without delay," said Lindsey.

Linden Juniors Sponsor Play By Dramateurs

A full house is expected when Linden Junior Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay sponsors the Dramateurs' production of "Visit to a Small Planet." The theatre date is Saturday at the Town Hall on the corner of Moraga Road and School Street in Lafayette. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

The delightful fantasy was originally written for television. Then, because the play proved so popular, it was rewritten in three acts and sent to Broadway—where it ran for 388 performances.

Tickets to the branch-sponsored evening of imaginative comedy are $1.75. Reservations should be made in advance by calling Mrs. William Egan at YEllowstone 4-3451.

Several Linden Junior Branch members are planning parties to precede and follow their "Visit to a Small Planet."

A midnight supper at the Lafayette home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson will follow the play tomorrow evening. Guests will include: Mr. and Mrs. James Burris, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Haley and Mr. and Mrs. George Monheit, all of Lafayette.

Morning Glories Can Be Well Mannered, Compact

Morning Glories are not noted for their neat and tidy habits. In fact, most gardeners shudder at the thought of them in their garrens. What most gardeners don't know, however, is that two members of this noted family are well mannered, compact and ideal for use in the landscape.

We speak of two which any member of the California Association of Nurserymen can introduce you to. They are the Bush Morning Glory and the Ground Morning Glory. One is a shrubby little sun lover that thrives on tough going; the other is a trailer of modest growth that will cascade down from a raised bed in a show of color you won't soon forget.

The predominant color of Bush Morning Glory derives from its silvery foilage which serves the perfect backdrop for its delicately white flowers. The blooms, obviously of the Morning Glories, are long lasting and fresh looking even in a blast-furnace sun.

The shrub is resistant to drought and one to consider for a sunny side of the house or along a drive where it draws attention but doesn't need much of it.

Individual shrubs are about two feet high and twice as wide, so plant accordingly if you want a row of them. Bloom comes from late spring through summer and into fall.

GROUND morning glory, while it sprawls appealingly on the ground, is much better used in raised beds, where its cascading flowers are better shown off. Grayish in color, the foliage sets off lavender-blue blossoms. When you see the blooms, you'll know them as morning glories right away.

Best culture for these two is no culture at all, or very little of it. They will respond to water with lusher growth, but demand good drainage if they are to live long. Heat brings out the blooms, so give them the sunniest spot in your garden and they'll thrive in it for years.

Prepare to Plant New Lawns Now

Here are some points for the gardener to consider this week.

Start thinking about a new lawn. It's not too early to work up a seedbed for planting next month.

Plant annuals for spring and summer color. The more the merrier.

Plant roses while they are still available in bare-root stock.

Start a hedge this month. The longer you wait, the less growth you'll get during this first year.

Many shrubs are now abloom. Daphne, deciduous magnolias, quinces, camellias are just a few of those you will find.

Visit to a Small Planet Is Delightful Production!

By JEAN JERNIGAN

"It's delicious" is the frequent delighted expression of Kreton, the visitor from outer space who gambols his way through "Visit to a Small Planet," current production of the Dramateurs, now playing at the Town Hall, Lafayette.

If a mere earthling can borrow Kreton's expression, the production is truly "delicious." Sustained humor throughout the play more than compensates for an occasional lapse in professional technique of an otherwise polished production.

DOC SCORTT gives a magnificent performance as General Tom Powers, even surpassing his excellence in former productions.

Completely undismayed that he confused centuries, Kreton, played by George Meyer, determines to start a war. He had hoped to visit earth during the civil war, but a miscalculation landed him on our planet during the present time cycle.

Kreton's efforts to start a war, and his observations of 20th century customs are a never-ending source of spontaneous audience laughter.

Few who see the play will ever enjoy another piece of bacon without hearing Kreton's comment regarding this favorite American breakfast tidbit, "torn from some animal." George Meyer renders a convincing performance as the delightful visitor from outer space who thinks the inevitable demise of mankind is "such a disagreeable custom."

A REAL scene stealer, the cat who plays the part of Rosemary appears to have learned just the proper expression to fit the dialogue. Without so much as a meow, the cat stars every second she is on stage.

Those who love the theater, or those who just seek an evening of solid entertainment will do well to attend a performance of "Visit to a Small Planet."

Under the able direction of Carl Rasmussen, the talented cast and production staff have produced a professional rendition of Gore Vidal's "Visit to a Small Planet."

Infantry Group Is Planning Reunion

Preliminary plans are now being made for a reunion on March 31 of the 159th Infantry, 40th Division, to commemorate the 20th anniversary of its induction into federal service.

Committeemen are currently attempting to locate those who were members of the World War II army regiment on or before March 3, 1941.

Former members of the Bay area infantry group interested in attending the March dinner meeting are asked to call TE 2-8173 (day or night) or write P.O. Box 45, Oakland 4.

Alfalfa Killer Worrying Growers; Steps Taken

A tiny insect, the spotted alfalfa aphid, has caused nearly all alfalfa growers in Contra Costa County to change the variety of alfalfa they grow.

Lahontan, unheard of a few years ago, now is the most popular variety in the county.

The almost complete change has occurred during a period of three years said Paul Lamborn of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service in Contra Costa County.

LAMBORN said that Robert Kortsen, now farm advisor in Contra Costa County but then located in Imperial County, was the first farm advisor in the state to report the insect and its devastating damage when the pest struck that desert county in 1956.

Within two years, the aphid spread through the major alfalfa growing areas of the state.

University of California and Nevada researchers began a crash program of developing varieties resistant to the spotted alfalfa aphid as soon as the pest appeared. When these varieties were developed, county extension staffs in counties began testing them for local value.

Farm Advisor Lamborn said, "Labontan, in addition to resistance to spotted alfalfa aphid, has some resistance to root rot. This is important in this county where alfalfa is grown on heavy soils where drainage and water penetration favor root rot."

"We are continuing our testing program in 1961.

Jim Hunter Lone Winner In Alameda Swim Meet

Jimmy Hunter of the Pleasant Hill Swim Club splashed his way to a new national record for 9-10-year-old boys last week-end in the AAU meet at Alameda. He was the only first place winner for the club.

His mark of 38.8 second in the 50-yard breaststroke erased the national record he set last year in the same event.

Hunter also holds national records in three other events in his age class.

The Swim Club placed in ten other events in the three day meet.

TORY SCHMITZ finished second in the 50-yard freestyle for girls in the 11-12-year-old class.

The 9-10-year-old girls relay team finished fifth in the 200 yard freestyle event.

Robert Schmitz finished third in the 25-yard breaststroke for boys eight and under.

Christa Girtman finished fifth in the 50-yard breaststroke for girls in the 9-10-year-old class.

She also placed fourth in the 25-yard butterfly.

The 15-16-year-old boys relay team posted a fifth place finish in the 200-yard freestyle event.

Included in his entries for the meet are Jimmy Hunter, Tory Schmitz and Christa Girtman, all of whom competed for the Pleasant Hill Swim Club in previous meets.

Robert Fabian took a sixth in the 100 yard freestyle in the 13-14-year-old bracket.

CD Chaplain Service Is Commended by Federal

The Civil Defense Chaplain Service of the Contra Costa County Disaster Office has been commended by the federal Office of Civil Defense Mobilization.

A letter was received by Will H. Perry Jr., director of the Disaster Office, from R. Stuart Hummel of Region 7, Santa Rosa, congratulating him and Rusk Rigor, deputy director, for the successful launching of a CD Chaplain Service.

Hummel referred to a draft copy of the Religious Affairs Service Annex, written by Rigor and presented at a meeting of over 100 clergymen and church leaders last June.

THIS RELIGIOUS Affairs Annex has been widely distributed throughout the nation, and has been passed out to all who attended the OCDM religious affairs courses since its issuance.

Hummel said, "Our purpose in distributing copies of your Religious Affairs Service Annex is, of course, to provide other civil defense offices and clergymen with an example of a well conceived and prepared blueprint for a county religious affairs program."

At the organizational meeting held in Martinez last June, an advisory committee of 20 representative clergymen was appointed.

Since then the advisory committee has met several times. They elected the Rev. Roland E. Smith of the Pleasant Hill Community Baptist Church as service chief. They voted to call the service the "CD Chaplain Service" instead of the Religious Affairs Service.

THEY APPOINTED Chester Thomas of the Church of the Nazarene, Walnut Creek, as section chief for disaster operations, Edgar Bradley of the Concord Methodist Church as section chief for operations planning, and Edward Varni of the Most Precious Blood Catholic Church as section chief for rehabilitation.

These men attended a week's training course at the Western Instructor Training Center in Alameda.

They have proceeded with the organization of the Chaplain Service so that clergymen and church leaders in the event of disaster will be provided opportunities to meet the spiritual needs of people, and the means for access to areas affected by disaster.

Closed Chest Cardiac Resuscitation Is Taught

Several doctors from Contra Costa County recently attended a clinic on closed chest cardiac resuscitation at St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles.

The clinic, one of several held across the nation in strategic areas, was conducted by a team from John Hopkins Medical School where the method of closed chest cardiac resuscitation was started two years ago.

UNDER THE auspices of the American Heart Association, the clinic is designed to teach doctors this method of resuscitation and to enable them to teach other doctors. The doctors from the Bay Area who attended the clinic were selected by the Contra Costa-Alameda Medical Association.

Dr. W. James Eldred, a thoracic surgeon whose offices are at 2100 Monument Boulevard, Pleasant Hill, was among the doctors selected. He will teach the method to professional medical personnel in this area.

Dr. Eldred said the method has worked well in the hands of the Johns Hopkins team and that they are enthusiastic about its wide application in cases of patients dying suddenly and unexpectedly. For example, death by electrocution, suffocation and drowning.

"ACTUAL technique has been well worked out by the Johns Hopkins team," Dr. Eldred continued, "and is to be taught by a selected group of chest surgeons, heart specialists and others to the medical profession.

"This is in order that it be applied more widely. Then it can be determined if it is universally better than the previously used technique of surgically opening the chest to restart the heart beat in cases of 'sudden death.'

"There are special high voltage electrical devices that must be available in the hospitals before the 'closed chest' resuscitation is attempted. The present system of open chest resuscitation, using available electrical counter shock apparatus should be continued until the higher voltage externally applied apparatus is obtained by the hospital," Dr. Eldred concluded.

FUNDS contributed to the Contra Costa County Heart Association are used for such professional educational programs as the clinic held recently in Los Angeles.

Give generously to the Heart Fund on Sunday. The knowledge your contribution helps to purchase may save your life or the life of one you love.

Easter Seal Drive Will Begin March 2

The annual Easter Seal fund campaign for crippled children and adults is scheduled to begin March 2.

The goal is $25,000 in Contra Costa County, according to Francis P. Healey, president of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County.

Healey said that the goal was accepted by directors of the County Easter Seal Society as the "Minimum amount needed to assure the continued basic services being given to the handicapped of the county, and to help a national Easter Seal research attack on physical crippling."

"Over 70 per cent of the campaign funds," he added, "will remain in Contra Costa County for direct services to aid the handicapped in local communities."

He said the services of the Contra Costa County Easter Seal Society include vocational training of the handicapped, social service case work, a loan closet from which handicapped persons may borrow wheel chairs and other orthopedic aids.

Also recreation for the handicapped in the form of parties, excursions and camperships for Easter Seal summer residents' camps.

Returns from the Easter Seal campaign will also held to maintain the Easter Seal Center at 240 South Sixth Street, Richmond, which houses the Easter Seal Vocational Training Workshop.

Single Car Crashes Are Often Fatal

More than half of the fatal accidents investigated by the California Highway Patrol officers during 1960 involved a single vehicle, Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said recently.

Of 1977 fatal accidents in patrol areas, 1111 were in the one-car category.

Sex Offenders in Area Are Often First-Timers

"The sex offender does not go unpunished or untreated," said Mrs. Florence Drummond, county juvenile control officer during a panel discussion held by the Mt. Diablo Council PTA.

Mrs. Drummond explained the role of the Sheriff's office in child molestation and interpreted the codes governing offenses against children.

The need for cooperation of citizens to help children know the facts for their protection and the prevention of criminal occurences was stressed.

MRS. DRUMMOND said "The Dangerous Stranger" is not always a stranger to the child, but may be someone known to him and unsuspected.

"There is great need to protect the victim and his family as well as the responsible party's family from undue publicity and harassment," she said.

Homer Schreiber, senior psychologist, probation department at Juvenile Hall, Martinez, described both juvenile and adult offenders in his jurisdiction as "not the hardened sort seen by the sheriff's office, but first offenders."

Schrieber is primarily concerned with chances of repetition of this activity. He said there is no specific psychological test used to determine a sexual deviate, but a number of tests are necessary.

PREVENTION of abnormal deviation is, according to Dr. Harvey Wall, Mt. Diablo District school psychologist, "no small task for school, parent and psychologist." Parent relationships play a highly important role.

Another panelist, Dr. John E. Mason, Concord physician, placed some blame on senility, with concurrent organic brain disease, as an underlying reason for sexual deviation.

Dr. Mason believes that in the instruction of very young children we must use absolutes, either "good or bad; hot or cold," and that abstracts are not understood.

"This is a very clean city," said Mason, "from the standpoint of the whole area, but since population density has a great effect on this, the future is not too optomistic. We need to do much training and instructing."

DR. CARVER Moosman, Pleasant Hill physician and surgeon, presented the viewpoint from an office practice of criminal or abnormal behavior.

He suggested the importance of endocrinology in the treatment of psysical aspects of this problem of sexual perversion, as well as the psychological.

"Adult education is very important in the development of proper attitude and knowledge of children," said Dr. Moosman.

Morgan Greenwood, moderator for the program, and Mt. Diablo School District consultant in child welfare and attendance, illustrated with graphs the normal development of infants through adolescents in sexual behavior, pointing out the areas where abnormal behavior begins.

Man and Sex Is Professor's Topic Sunday

Dr. Robert N. Rodenmayer will lead a discussion, "Man and Sex," taken from the book "The Christion Man" by William Hamilton, at Diablo Valley Junior College, Sunday evening at 7:30, in the students' activity building.

Dr. Rodenmayer is professor of pastoral theology at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley.

He has served in various parish situations in New York's East Side and in rural and college communities.

This is open to all college-age young people.

Action Deferred On 'Entry' Law; Constitutional?

The County Board of Supervisors has deferred action on a proposed right-of-entry ordinance requested by the county health officer and building inspector.

Desired is more information from the district attorney's office.

The ordinance would make it mandatory for householders to admit health and building inspectors to their properties on demand, and would spell out the punishment for those who refused entry to the county officers.

The supervisors have requested a list of special cases where such an ordinance would have saved difficulty, and a list of other counties with such an ordinance.

The constitutionality of the ordinance has been questioned by Supervisor Tom Coll of Concord, and he said present county ordinances are sufficient.

Where Cancer Is Prevalent To Be Learned

Volunteer help from the American Cancer Society is making possible a county-wide study of statistics collected by the Department of Public Health. It will be determined where cancer is most prevalent in the county, Dr. Charles J. Hart, president of the county society, announced today.

Starting this week, the society and public health department hope to be able to find out just where each kind of cancer strikes hardest in Contra Costa, which age groups are most vulnerable to particular types of the disease, if certain communities show higher incidence than others, and the indicated reasons why, Dr. Hart said.

"This is the first time such a study has been made anywhere that we know of," Dr. Hart said, adding that he hopes some study results will be available by April, traditional cancer control month throughout the nation by Act of Congress.

Many World Wonders Are Shown in Latest Cinerama

The biggest tourist attraction of the ancient world, the Temple of Diana at Ephesus, is shown in an artist's conception in Cinerama's "Seven Wonders of the World" at the Orpheum Theater.

Constructed of white marble decorated with colored and golden designs, the temple took more than a century to construct. It was destroyed by Goth barbarians from Europe, but materials from the beautifu edifice, which had attracted more visitors than any other building of ancient history, were used to build the famous Cathedral of St. John on a nearby site.

"Seven Wonders of the World" presents over 40 "wonders" to Cinerama audiences, including natural and man-made wonders.

Tickets for all performances are available at the Orpheum Theater boxoffice.

Company Plans New Mobil Home Park in Milpitas

A newly formed Oakland corporation is about to begin construction of one of the largest and most luxurious mobile home parks in the United States.

Mobilvillage, Inc., will be located at Milpitas, at the intersection of Highway 17 and Dixon Road.

FOUR hundred thousand shares of stock is now being made available to the public for development of the initial phase of the $2 million project.

According to Hugh H. Tebault, general manager of the Mobilvillage, Inc., 1419 Broadway, Oakland, the reason behind the organization of the park is that in the latest estimates of government agencies 10 per cent of the population will be living in mobile homes by 1970.

The present demand outstrips the available facilities even today.

There are only 33 mobile home parks in California and just three in Northern California.

THE INITIAL phase of construction will include 84 units, each with parking for two automobiles, private patio, underground utility hookups and telephone, television and 110 and 220 electric tie-ins.

When completed, Mobilvillage will have 550 units on 50 landscaped acres, heated swimming pool, recreation center, recreational areas plus a bowling center with cocktail lounge and restaurant.

Air Reservists See CHP Photos; Officers Promoted

A recent meeting of the 9441st Air Reserve Squadron on February 16 featured a program by Officer Herbert L. Lessley of the California Highway Patrol's Concord office.

Officer Lessley presented a lecture on highway safety.

A series of slides taken from the Highway Patrol files showed some of the worst accidents that have occurred in the county in the past few years.

The slides were only identified by location and the names of the victims remained anonymous. It was the unanimous opinion that the film should be given to Parent-Teacher Association meetings and service clubs in addition to driver training classes.

It was announced by Lt. Col. Harlan B. Copsey of Walnut Creek, squadron commander, that five captains will be promoted to the rank of major.

These officers have been slated for appointment by the Reserve Officers' Promotion Act of 1955.

They are Capt. William Harrison and Capt. Harmon Werle of Walnut Creek; Capts. Ray Quilici and Guy H. Anderson of Concord, and Capt. Robert W. Turner of Richmond.

Art Ass'n Active in Big Show

Local artists of the Diablo Art Association will be featured with their paintings in an art show today and tomorrow in the Concord Shopping Center.

The artists will be painting, sketching, weaving and engraving.

They include Katy Madsen, well known portrait artist from Walnut Creek; Otto Schuchard, Orinda artist, who will sketch in pen and ink.

Orville Kuhl will be featured in Rhodes along with his engraved guns, valued at $10,000, $5000 and $2000.

Jade Fon Woo will speak on design and composition in painting, Monday, at an association meeting.

Jade Fon Woo is currently teaching classes from Alameda to Diablo Valley Junior College.

Mental Health Discussion Is Planned

Mrs. Robert T. Adams of Lafayette, new chairman of volunteers for Contra Costa Mental Health Association, is planning a discussion meeting concerning volunteer activities.

The meeting will be held Monday at 10 a.m. in Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, 1924 Trinity Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Persons interested in the activities of the association are invited.

Mrs. Adams said she is completing the organization of her committee and is anxious to meet with all volunteers and those who are interested in this field.

These include serving at Napa State Hospital, driving for volunteers and individuals who need transportation to the Mental Health Clinic at Martinez, staff personnel, education and community project committee members.

Parents Hear About Teaching Machines

Lyndon Vivrette, director of instructional materials for the Berkeley Public Schools, discussed "Teaching Machines" at the Feb. 14 meeting of the Sleepy Hollow School Parents Club.

Vivrette demonstrated how self-teaching is achieved through the use of various types of "Teaching Machines" which range in complexity from unusually arranged books to simple home use machines to the very complex machaines used in teaching institutions.

THIS METHOD of teaching is advantageous to the student because it does not permit him to make mistakes, and remedial work is given immediately when misunderstanding takes place.

An outstanding authority in the field of audio-visual education, Vivrette is a resident of Orinda and his children attend the Sleepy Hollow School.

Health Group Reviews Cancer Education Films

The American Cancer Society's program of cancer education for intermediate schools was presented by Mrs. Robert L. Holt of Concord to members of the Health Committee of the Orinda Union School District who met Tuesday at Sleepy Hollow School.

A film, "From One Cell," showing the development of cancer cells, and a useful tool in the study of cell structure in intermediate science classes, was reviewed, plus accompanying educational literature available.

ANOTHER FILM, showing the known effects of smoking on the young body, entitled "To Smoke or Not to Smoke" also was shown the reviewing committee by Mrs. Holt who is county chairman of cancer education in schools for the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society.

The teaching materials available from the society now are being used in many Contra Costa intermediate schools throughout the county, and the health committee's meeting was scheduled prior to arrangements for their utilization in Orinda.

Hearts 'n Flowers . . . . Bring Springlike Dreams

By YVONNE MAUZEY
DR 6-4083

February showers bring our girls out blooming like flowers.

Children's parties are such fun. Seeing the children you see every day in blue jeans and sweaters and skirts blossoming out into their best bib and tucker. They are sure growing up on us.

IMAGINE my daughter up to the age of bop parties! I feel like a kid myself until I see these kids dressed up party style and realize this is my daughter half grown, and then I feel like Grandma Moses and that I should take my place in the rocking chair in the corner.

I guess we should be glad of this day and age when we can feel like teenagers, even though we have teenagers of our own. The pioneer woman with a teenager just about had one foot in the grave. Now with automation as it is we can still be spry and in our prime.

MY DAUGHTER Sharon celebrated her birthday with a party in our home Friday with 28 dancing members of her school class. The party was held on the patio with dancing and cokes and bop records.

A Valnetine party was held at the home of Chuck and Mary Lou Holt for their daughter Janice February 11 from 7 to 10 p.m.

Refreshments of coke, cake and ice cream were served to the 14 dancing party goers.

The kids had lots of fun with a game, with two suitcases of clothes. One with boys clothes, one with girls clothes. The boys put on the girls clothes and vice versa.

The school held their delayed Valnetine party for the seventh and eighth grade students at the old Moraga school last Friday night with records, dancing and refreshments.

OLIE AND MORT Eyre had a cocktail dinner party in their home February 11 for 10 people from Mort's new plant office force. Cocktails and a baked prime rib dinner, specialty of the house, were served the guests, with all the trimmings .

There is a third grade Brownie group from Orchard Dell. The children are in the morning class. This group is led by Faye Parker, with Betty Die as co-leader. The group meets in the old Moraga school every Monday. This new Brownie group has 12 members and meet in full uniform with a color guard that would make many an older group envious.

THE BROWNIES had their Valentine Day party Monday from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Callahan furnished the refreshments, punch and cup cakes with Valentine decor and the girls exchanged Valentines and played games.

I hear Jean Bates has been elected and installed as president over all the units of the John Muir Hospital Guild. Jean is a very active girl, holding many chairmanships in many organizations.

She should tell us all where she gets her vitamins, they sure must be potent to keep her going at such a pace. The community really prospers with a gal like this.

THE MORAGA Masticators held their first Goumet Club dinner at Jack and Nel Prescotts last week. This was an Indian dinner, which took two hours to consume, with all the courses and wines served with each course.

At each dinner another member of the club is hostess, who serves cocktails, and main course in the dinner of her choice. Each other couple brings the course designated by the hostess, in the type of food for the evening and the wine to go with the course. The couples serve their own courses.

NEL PRESCOTT wore a Sari at her dinner. Dirk and Carr Vanderburch turned up in Indian dress. Carr with a lovely Sari and Dirk with a bejeweled turbin.

Jack Prescott as a surprise had hand painted menus done up with a cute poem about the Moraga Masticators that he had created himself.

The menu, Malabar shrimp, kayla-ka samba (banana samba), curry punny (pork) with greens, East Indian rice and raisins and almonds with Bengal dhab and puppadums, Darjeeling tea was served with preserved ginger on the side.

Dessert consisted of lizard skins which are orange sections cut and filled with brandy and set aflame. Some menu, huh?

THE QUAIL unit is holding their annual fashion show in the early spring. The theme, "A Fine Feathered Easter."

The function will be held March 3 in the Straw Monkey Room of the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley. Cocktails at noon, buffet luncheon at 1 o'clock. June Voegtly is chairman of the fashion show, Donna Preece is doing the decorations, and Fran Swanson is ticket chairman with Donna Newfield on publicity. Tickets are $3.75.

DONNA GRAHAM will be the fashion coordinator. The clothes for this event are supplied by Wallace and Wallace of Berkeley.

Club members doing the modeling are Audrey Simpkins, DeDe Sawyer, Ruth Salet, Marie Rosenblatt, Sherry Johnson, Dawn Christensen, Fran Swanson, Donna Preece, Donna Graham, Donna Newfield.

Background music will be played by Moragan pianist Mrs. Schulte. For tickets call Fran Swanson, DR 6-5386. Hair styles by Bill's Beauty Studio of Orinda Village.

BOB AND MARGE DeJohn had a dessert coffee February 10 in their home at 20 Ross Drive for 12 old friends from a previous neighborhood. All thoroughly enjoyed the chance to chat and compare notes on the areas. The students of St. Mary's have organized a fund to provide scholarships for high school graduates. Their organization is the Student Heritage Fund.

The students will try to raise $1200 this year, which will pay for two full tuition scholarships. They are seeking funds from select Bay Area firms.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of this new project was made by Brother S. Albert, F.S.C., president of St. Mary's.

Brother Xavier, vice president for development, commended the committee and student body at a Tuesday meeting on the campus.

St. Mary's College has started construction on their new dormitory to accommodate 100 students. The new dormitory will cost $253,404 and will be completed in time for the fall semester.

The annual homecoming June 4 will be the day for officially naming the new dorm.

An outdoor patio will connect last years structure and the new structure.

NANCY AND CHARLES Garverick were blessed with a new addition to their happy home by a boy, Jeffery Dean, born February 12 at the Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek. He was 20 inches long and weight 7 lbs. 4 oz.

Nancy was the third grade afternoon teacher at Rheem School and is on a year's leave. Congratulations to the Garvericks and Jeffery Dean, their first child.

RUTH FREITAS was in Los Angeles last week visiting her father. He was just recovering from surgery. The operation was a success and Ruth flew back home Sunday night. Los Angeles is Ruth's original home and Alma Mater.

Charles Toll informs me mumps are taking their toll of the school children in the Rheem area in all grades.

Social dancing for sixth, seventh and eighth grade children started Monday in the old school from 7 to 8 p.m. and will meet each Monday at the same time for the next six weeks.

THE CLIFFORDS of Orinda will teach the dancing, which will consists of social dancing, the latest dance steps, and dancing etiquette. Mr. Hunt, the head counsellor at Miramonte, was at Rheem School Friday distributing literature and giving a talk on the required courses for high school graduates, universities and state college requirements. The progress and projection for the next years (4).

He will return March 3 to collect the bulletins and turn them into the high school along with the medical exams and other data.

Letters are to be sent home to notify parents of the orientation night to be held at the high school March 15 at 8 p.m.

MR. LEWIS and he counselors will be there to orient the parents of the eighth grade students about the school.

March 16 at Rheem School the eighth grade students will register for high school. There will be six counselors present to go over requirements and cards with the pupils and parents in the kindergarten room, starting at 7 p.m.

The time, place and student counselors name have been set up. With these facts the high school can set up classes for the next year, how many classes they will need in each subject, teachers, etc.

Lenore Mohrmann, education chairman, reported the 35 eighth graders would meet their new high school counsellors March 14 and will have high school orientation.

Rheem School is now taking orders for the year book. The price is $1.50. Order yours early. The book includes group pictures of each class and an individual photo of each student and picture and write up of events happening throughout the year.

The fifth grade Girl Scouts would like to invite students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades and all interested parents to their films to be shown at the old school February 6 and 27 from 3.4[illegible] to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Eleanor Daly, Contra Costa County Civil Defense and Disaster Council, will be the speaker.

Miramonte High: The officials of the University of California have bestowed the awart of merit upon Miramonte High School.

The award was won by academic record achieved by graduates of Miramonte.

THIS AWARD is made to schools of different sizes depending on the number of students entering all campuses of the university. Miramonte was in the group sending the greatest number and was represented by graduates who entered the university in 59-60.

This group of 40 or more students represent the first graduating class of the school.

The certificate will be presented to the school in the near future. A Humanities seminar is being started at Miramonte High School. The program is sponsored by the community for the interest of students. Their meeting will be held every Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30. They will have lectures and discussions lead by experts of the community.

THESE LECTURES will be held the first hour of the evening in the field of humanities, art, music, literature, philosophy, history and foreign languages, given by top authorities in the fields. The second hour will go to group discussions, with students and an adult leader meeting in small groups.

There has been great interest in this program by the authorities who are serving as lecturers.

The program chairman is Donald Flemming and group coordinator Dr. David Hilger, who has been known for his interest in high school students.

St. Mary's College will share with eight other colleges in a $7500 grant, given by Richfield Oil Co., as part of its aid to education.

THE PROCEEDS from the show will go to build a new St. Perpetua School. The show was a huge success, selling 700 tickets at $3.50 each. Using the two ballrooms of Castlewood to hold the crowd.

A meeting April 3 at Stone Valley School, Alamo, will be one of a series on school district unification.

The Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization has planned five meetings running through April 18.

Dr. Jack Shahbazian of San Ramon Valley, chairman, said the committee also plans to confer with Robert Clemo, chief of the Bureau of School District Organization, State Department of Education, to discuss phases of informing the public regarding school district reorganization.

A group of committeemen will visit Sacramento, or Clemo will be invited to meet with the committee March 7.
